TWO NEW OFFICIALS

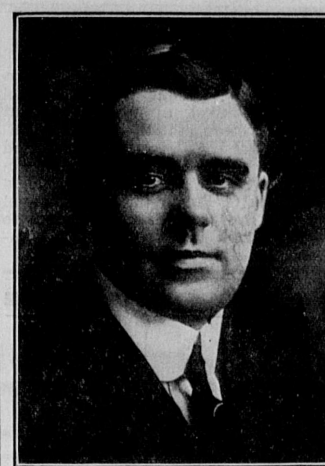

Waltham Trust Company at Annual Meeting, Promotes Two of Its Officers

At the annual meeting of the Waltham Trust Company held on Wednesday Mr. Charles G. Clark of this city was elected treasurer.

The Waltham Trust Co. is the largest Waltham financial institution, a member of Federal Reserve Bank and its president, Edward P. Sanderson is actively engaged in the bank's affairs.

MR. CHARLES G. CLARK
Elected Treasurer Waltham Trust Company.

MR. SHIRLEY H. ELDRIDGE
Recently Elected Vice President Waltham Trust Company.

Mr. Clark is widely known in the local banking circles. Educated in the Newton schools, started his banking career at the Newton Centre Trust Company in 1907.

For over twelve years Mr. Clark occupied one position after another until he had become manager and cashier of all the branches of the Newton Trust Company system.

From 1915 to 1918 Mr. Clark filled the office of vice treasurer of the Newton Centre Savings Bank. During these active years he studied law and fitted for the bar.

Late in 1919 Mr. Clark entered the Waltham Trust Company as their attorney, holding this position somewhat over a year until receiving new honors as a bank executive.

Mr. Clark is well known for his pleasant manner and banking ability. He has established a considerable reputation on his knowledge of bank accountancy and organization.

During the recent war Mr. Clark served in the Navy and is a member of the Newton Post of the American Legion.

Mr. Eldredge received his early education in the Waltham schools, graduating from the Waltham High School in 1901. In that year he entered the National Shawmut Bank of Boston, where he served in different departments of responsibility until 1911.

During this period the aggressive young banker studied law and took his degree as Bachelor of Laws from Northeastern College in the class of 1910.

Early in 1911 Mr. Eldredge was elected treasurer of the Waltham Trust Company, which position he has held up to his election as vice president.

The Waltham Trust Company is a bank of over $5,000,000 in assets.

Mr. Eldredge was the first president of the Waltham Chamber of Commerce, which now ranks as one of the most active chambers in the State.

Mr. Eldredge is well known throughout the State as ex-president of the Associated Trust Savings. During his time of office many constructive measures were adopted for the protection of savings departments in trust companies.

BEAU BRUMMEL

Four Performances Given at Players Hall for Smith Endowment

An exceptionally fine production of Richard Mansfield's masterpiece, "Beau Brummel," was given this week on four evenings at Players' Hall for the benefit of the Smith College Endowment Fund.

No one who has seen the performance can fail to appreciate the very fine acting of Mr. Geoffrey Baker as Beau Brummel. Mr. Baker is a Newton man and is well known for his dramatic ability, but the play this week showed his ability as an actor as never before.

The play was a very long one of five acts, but throughout these five acts Mr. Baker never for a single moment forgot himself, remaining from first to last the polished, suave man of fashion, conscious of his position and power, absolutely reckless of money matters, and supremely indifferent to the world's opinion of him, yet willing to sacrifice himself rather than make capital of his former friends.

The play abounds in both wit and humor, with a deep note of tragedy and pathos at its close. The scene in the second act between Beau and Mr. Oliver Vincent, whom he at first takes for his tailor and with whose daughter he is planning a "marriage de convenance," was very well done. The fidgeting nervousness of the old man so gets on Beau's nerves that, although he turns his back, he says he can still feel him fidgeting, and begs him to "stand still, man, stand still."

Mr. Baker was admirably supported by the rest of the cast. Miss Dorothy Spence is particularly to be commended as Mrs. St. Aubyn, the witty, caustic, unscrupulous woman, whose anger and resentment against Beau Brummel causes his rupture with the Prince of Wales, upon whose favor his own social position rests.

The part of the spicy, worldly Duchess of Leamington was also well taken by Miss Amy Beale, while Miss Bonnie Jarvis looked the part of Mariana, upon whose decision so much depended, and Miss Mary Kimball made an attractive Kathleen.

The climax in St. James' Park, where the Prince cuts Beau Brummel and the latter retorts to Sheridan, "Who is your fat friend?" was most effective.

Mr. Philip Wardner acted the part of Mortimer, the servant, who follows his master in his downfall, with much sympathy and understanding. Particularly was this true of the last act, where Beau, dying of starvation, imagines himself once more dining with princes. In this act, also, Miss Caroline Freeman was very convincing in her part as the French lodging house keeper.

PRIZE DRILL

Company H, 101st Infantry Holds Its First Prize Drill

The first prize drill of Company H, 101st Infantry, was held last Monday night at the State armory in West Newton and attracted over 500 friends of the company.

Corporal David Dalton won the first prize and established the enviable record of taking two medals within a week, having won third prize at the competition drill held in Somerville on Washington's birthday. Second prize was given to Sergeant Patrick J. Driscoll, former Y. D. man and the third award went to Corporal Stephen McDonald, the "dark horse" of the evening.

The company made a fine appearance as it stepped out on the floor at the opening of the drill, marching to the stirring martial music furnished by an orchestra. The judges then took their positions and each of the company officers alternated in giving the commands for the competition. The contest eventually narrowed down to six men, and it was only after a long and careful test that the judges were able to render their decision. Lt. Col. McLaughlin, U. S. A., Captain Fitzgerald, B. Company, 101st Infantry, and Lt. Snow of the same company were the judges, and the popularity of their decisions showed in the cheering that followed each announcement.

Following the drill, the company, under command of Captain John A. MacClellan, gave a short exhibition of close order drill that was much appreciated by those present. Dancing until a late hour followed the drill, with the orchestra furnishing excellent music for this occasion.

DEPUTIES AT WALTHAM

Two deputies will be at City Hall, Waltham, from March 7 to March 15, inclusive, from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. and 7 to 9 in the evening to assist taxpayers in making their returns.

ing in her part as the French lodging house keeper.

Too much praise cannot be given to Miss Ethel Hale Freeman and to those who assisted her for their work. All of the characters showed careful training and costumes and scenery were in perfect keeping with the period represented.

Between the acts the West Newton Music School Senior Assembly rendered an excellent program.

HOSPITAL FUND

A Total of Over $80,000 Received and $20,000 More Needed

The trustees of the Newton Hospital and the officers of the Newton Hospital Association express their appreciation of the generous response of the citizens of Newton to the recent appeal for funds to carry on the work of the Newton Hospital.

While the maximum amount was not received, the results are considered highly commendable considering the times. The balance of some $20,000 is imperatively needed to prevent a deficit for the current year and the officers hope that it may be obtained in the near future.

The following table shows the amount contributed and the number of subscribers in each part of the city:

RECEPTION TO DR. AND MRS. GEO. S. BUTTERS

The official board of the Centenary Methodist Church of Auburndale has issued invitations for a reception to be tendered Dr. and Mrs. George S. Butters, who have served that church for nine years and who are retiring from active service this Spring, after 40 years of beautiful ministry. One-half of this time has been spent in the city of Newton at Newtonville, Newton, and Auburndale churches.

This reception will be held at Centenary Church on Friday evening, March 11th, from 8 to 9 o'clock.

It is to be regretted that all who desire cannot attend this event. The admission will be by ticket only.

A NOVEL AFFAIR

A White Elephant Sociable Given at Central Church, Newtonville

The first group of the social committee of Central Church, Newtonville, under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hill, planned a very novel and successful sociable, which was held in the vestry of the church last Friday evening. It was a "white elephant" sociable, so called because all who attended were asked to bring with them some article in their possession which they wished particularly "to get rid of." Whether the chance to get rid of a worthless object, or the desire to acquire one, was the bait which lured people we do not know, but the attendance was large. The young people in charge are strong in original ideas and with the help of an able committee they added laurels to those already won.

After a short period of general social activity, the sound of the piano drew the attention of the company in that direction, and then coming slowly and majestically into view, was a procession headed by a figure clad in white, with an East Indian helmet on his head and carrying a light cane. It proved to be that distinguished traveler-lecturer and author, Dr. William E. Strong, who kindly gave his services for this occasion. He was followed by two remarkable near life size elephants, each attended by a boy in native costume, and several tall, brown "native servants," all in white, and with gaily colored turbans and sashes worn with truly Oriental grace. The boys were very successful in the management of their somewhat unruly charges.

After parading twice in solemn dignity around the room, the elephants and their attendants mounted a low platform which had been placed in the middle of the room, and Dr. Strong, with quite the manner of "the most noted showman on earth," punctuated his remarks as he walked around the platform with touches of the light cane he carried, to quiet the restless stamping of the beasts.

Now, as everybody knows, our "showman" has an inimitable manner of his own, and he used it to good advantage at this time. He began his "lecture" with a poem, but after a time, "abandoning," as he said, "all forms, literary or otherwise," he proceeded in characteristic prose to call our attention to the numerous good points of his "show."

On entering the room, each person had been given a number, and after the elephants had left the platform, moving with the same slow and stately dignity, swaying their trunks in realistic fashion, urged occasionally by a touch of their master's hand, Dr. Strong and his "native" helper, Mr. Belden Sly, called off duplicate numbers. The persons holding the originals went to the platform in groups of five or six, selected from the wrapped parcels placed there those which seemed to promise most, opened them and held up the contents to the view of the interested audience.

There were many strange white elephants which found new owners that evening, and this part of the entertainment furnished much hilarious amusement.

Later the company went to the dining room, which had been decorated in most artistic fashion. A fringe of life like elephants cut from paper with great skill adorned the walls of the room, but the chief interest centered in a most wonderful elephant which formed the central ornament of the supper table. A "baby elephant" it was, made with amazing fidelity to life, and gaily caparisoned, while ropes of pearls and other priceless trappings befitting such a royal beast added to its magnificent appearance as a real work of art.

It stood with great dignity, its head not in the least turned by the words of admiring wonder heard all through the supper hour.

The supper table was presided over by four ladies, and behind each lady stood an imposing brown servant in white, with sash and gaily colored turban, adding much to his distinguished appearance, and to the decorative effect of the room. His duty was to replenish the table when necessary. Other "native servants" in costume aided the ladies on the committee in serving the company. Altogether the affair was a most delightful one.

DEATH OF MR. ANDREWS

Mr. David H. Andrews died last week Thursday afternoon at his home on Alden street, Newton Centre, from the effects of a shock on Wednesday morning, from which he did not regain consciousness.
He was born on September 17, 1844.

THE LATE DAVID H. ANDREWS

in Pepperell, the son of David Andrews and Thankful (Murdock) Andrews.

As a boy and young man Mr. Andrews lived in Pepperell and received the major part of his education at Dartmouth, from which he received his B. S. and M. A. degrees in the scientific department. After his college days, Mr. Andrews was engaged in mechanical engineering in Worcester for two years, and later became an assistant engineer for the National Bridge & Iron Works, continuing as such until, in 1876, he began business under his own name, as a builder of bridges.

He organized, in 1891, the Boston

Bridge Works, which became an incorporated company in 1901, and of which Mr. Andrews became president and director. Since 1896 he had been a consulting visitor of the Chandler Scientific School. He was a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the Boston Society of Engineers and belonged to the Engineers' Club of Boston.

On October 17, 1872, Mr. Andrews married Miss Clara M. Gilbert of Concord, N. H., by whom he is survived. He leaves also a daughter, Mrs. William H. Rice (Florence M. Andrews) of Newton Centre, and three sons, John G. Andrews of Natick, Herbert M. Andrews of West Newton and Walter R. Andrews of Newton. He was for many years a prominent member of the First Church.

Services were held last Saturday at his late residence, the Rev. Edward M. Noyes officiating, and the burial was in Newton Cemetery.

DEATH OF MRS. CALLAGHAN

Mrs. Daniel J. Callaghan of Ridge avenue, Newton Centre, died very suddenly at her home on Sunday afternoon. She had just returned from Chicago where she had been summoned by the illness of her father.

She attended services in the Catholic Church on Sunday morning apparently in good health, so that her death in the afternoon came as a great surprise to her friends.

Mrs. Callaghan was born in Chicago, but had lived in Newton Centre twelve years. She was very popular, having many friends, and being a member of the Newton Centre Woman's Club, and of many philanthropic societies. She leaves a husband and one little girl.

Mrs. Callaghan was a wonderful pianist and had the distinction of being awarded a diamond prize by the Chicago University for her exceptional talent.

She was also a member of the Women's Catholic Club of Newton Centre, the Guild of the Infant Saviour, and the Philomathean Club.

Services were held Wednesday morning at the Church of the Sacred Heart. Father Curtin was celebrant, Father Haney, first deacon, and Father Murphy, second deacon. The pall bearers were Vincent C. Roberts, Augustus White, Arthur Raynor, Warren Lovejoy, Paul Engraham, and S. Hardy Mitchell. The burial was at Holyhood, Brookline.

THE COPELEY THEATRE—For the play to follow "Jeff" at the Copley Theatre, Henry Jewett has selected "When Knights Were Bold," one of the successes of last season at that house. It is an exceptional and original type of farce, mingling the romance of a bygone epoch of English history with satirical scenes dealing with the life of the present day.

The week of "When Knights Were Bold" at the Copley Theatre is certain to be a week of laughter. One critic has said of the play: "It is a riotous farce, its purpose being simply to make the audience laugh till their sides ache, and this highly commendable purpose is easily accomplished. The audience laughs and grows merry over the romance of the year 1196, but it leaves the theatre with the thought, somewhat in the back of its mind that despite the trusts and the income tax and the high cost of living, this is not the worst year that ever happened in the history of the world."

RECEPTION TO DR. SMART

A reception was held on Monday evening at the Congregational Church, Newton Highlands, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Smart. The reception was under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society, Mrs. Sanford E. Thompson, president.

In the receiving line were Dr. and Mrs. George T. Smart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Keeler, Hon. and Mrs. Seward W. Jones. Mr. Jones reviewed the principal events of Dr. Smart's pastorate of nineteen years, and on behalf of the church presented him with a check for $3,000 as a token from the church and parish of their appreciation of his years of service among them.

Dr. Smart then replied fittingly, and expressed his appreciation of what had been said and of the generous gift presented to him.

Rev. J. Edgar Park of the Second Church of West Newton then told of the pleasant associations which the ministers of Newton had always enjoyed with Dr. Smart and of their regret at his leaving. Attorney-General J. Weston Allen presented Dr. Smart with an embossed copy of the resolutions which were passed in the Fall at the annual meeting.

Violin selections were played by Mrs. Warren Dilloway, accompanied by Mrs. M. F. Wallace at the piano. Mrs. Raymond Fuller sang several solos.

The vestry was tastefully decorated with palms and flowers, the decorations being in charge of Miss Marion Morse. The ushers were in charge of Mrs. Albert L. Hutchinson and the refreshments in charge of Miss Florence Foster.

Over two hundred people were present, including many guests and friends from the other Newtons.

Y. M. C. A.

Newton Y. M. C. A. defeated Malden Y. M. C. A. swimming team, 54 to 14, Wednesday night. Jacquith, Noonan and Barnes were the stars of the local "Y." The summary:

160-Yard Relay—Won by Newton (Cunningham, Jacquith, Noonan and Barnes). Time, 1 minute 33 seconds.

ECCLIASTICAL COUNCIL

An Ecclesiastical Council met today at the Newton Highlands Congregational Church, ministers and delegates being present representing the churches of Suffolk West Association.

Rev. Edward Noyes of Newton Centre was moderator of the council and Rev. Mr. Cutler of Waban, scribe.

The clerk of the Newton Highlands Church read the resignation of Dr. Smart and reviewed the proceedings of the church, including the set of resolutions passed at the annual meeting.

Dr. Smart was called upon and responded briefly, testifying to the loyalty of the people of the church during the nineteen years of his service and of his appreciation of the fellowship he has had with his brethren in the ministry.

The council approved the action of Dr. Smart and of the church and declared the pastoral relations terminated.

Resolutions were passed by the council showing the high regard in which Dr. Smart is held and commending his faithful service in the ministry during the pastorate now closed.

DEATH OF MRS. EDMANDS

Mrs. Julia H. Edmands died at her home on Hancock street, Auburndale, on Tuesday of pneumonia, after ten days' illness. She is the widow of the late Walter F. Edmands, and had lived in Auburndale for 48 years.

She leaves two sons, Walter F. Edmands, of Boston, Edward T. Edmands, of Auburndale, and a daughter, Emma Louise Edmands of Auburndale.

Services were held at her late residence on Thursday, the Rev. Percival M. Wood of the Church of the Messiah officiating, and the burial was in Newton Cemetery.

NORTH GATE CLUB

A very pleasant time was had by all who attended the Invitation Dance at the Club last Friday night. About 50 couples were present. The music was furnished by Walter Johnson's Orchestra. The "members" and "red lantern" dances were the features of the evening.

The committee in charge plans to have another one of these dances within a few weeks.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Classical High School

The annual "Newtonian Day Drive" was observed in the assembly hall last Wednesday morning. Both the editor and the manager spoke for the drive. Graham, the editor, asked the students not only to subscribe for the "Newtonian" but also to contribute to it. Manager Norton explained the reason for the raise in price on this year's book and requested the students to aid in securing advertisements. As Norton said, "The publication of such a book as the 'Newtonian' is made possible only by the generosity of the advertisers." Mr. Adams then introduced Mr. Underwood, who put the finishing touches and polish to the "drive." Mr. Underwood presented the book at an entirely different angle than has been the custom of previous classes, and finished by reciting a poem that he had composed for the occasion. This poem has been adopted by the "Newtonian" staff as their slogan. Each pupil received a subscription blank and at the close of school almost 400 signed applications had been handed to the manager. During the lunch period, on the same day, at a freshmen class meeting, the "Newtonian" proposition was again presented by Mr. Underwood, the manager, and the editor. As this is the largest freshmen class in the history of the school, it will not be a surprise if 200 subscriptions are received from this class alone.

At the Melrose-Newton game at the Arena last Monday night, about 50 percent of the students of this school were present. Although Melrose succeeded in winning, the Newton team completely outplayed their opponents. This Friday night in the Arena, Newton will defeat Arlington. If you doubt this be present and you will be convinced.

Recently there has been considerable complaint concerning the behavior and conduct of the students while at school assemblies and also at public gatherings. Mr. Adams brought this matter before the pupils and urged them to avoid doing anything that might lead to indecent reflection on the school. The students were impressed with the manner in which Mr. Adams put forth this matter and will do their utmost to live down this reputation.

The Sophomore Class will hold a dance in the gym this afternoon. The schedule for the Girls' Basketball Team is as follows: Winsor at Winsor, Friday, March 4. Wellesley High at Newton, March 10. 2nd set of class games, March 17. Alumni, March 26. Battery practice will begin next Monday in the gym.

Roger Wolcott School

First place! The highest honors in the city were awarded to our school in the recent Chinese Famine Fund Drive. Mr. Eddy congratulated the school in several of his addresses and at the meeting of the class of 1925 at the Classical High School, he said that the Roger Wolcott School held first place among the schools of the city.

Miss Sargent, the new school nurse in the Wolcott School, is proving herself very efficient and popular with the boys and girls. She reported after a most careful individual examination, that the cleanliness and health of the pupils were of the highest calibre. The vocational guidance notebooks in Miss Doran's room are exceptionally fine. One by Dorothy Boggs entitled, "The Dressmaker," was splendidly planned, and the pictures, writing, and one poem most humorous and original.

Work on the new building is again progressing rapidly. Carpenters and plasterers are now nearing the end of their work and soon the fishers will be working. It is impossible to state whether the building will be ready for occupancy before next fall or not.

Stearns School

The members of the eighth-grade class visited the plant of the Hood Rubber Co. in Watertown Friday afternoon. This was the fourth industrial trip of the year. Considerable interest was manifested by the pupils over this trip for many of their fathers, brothers, and sisters are employed in this large factory. The Hood people were very courteous and considerate in their treatment of the class, making many unusual concessions in order to make the visit one never to be forgotten. The intricacies of modern rubber shoe and rubber-tire making were very carefully explained by guides thoroughly acquainted with all forms of the work. It was a treat for the pupils to see a rubber boot made entirely. From the receiving room, where rubber from South America and Africa is received, to the shipping room, where cases of boots are shipped to Chicago, London and Tokio, the class was gradually escorted, the many treatments of the raw rubber being noted. The class discussion of the trip brought out many interesting personal deductions. Rubber shoe making as an occupation was reviewed, and it was inspiring to note the different features which attracted different individuals. The next trip is to the Thomas G. Plant Shoe Co. in Jamaica Plain.

The Newton Girls' Club held a Round Table discussion at the weekly meeting on Tuesday, March 1, at Stearns School. "Character Building" was the topic which was interestingly presented and discussed. A short musical program followed the half-hour Round Table.

The Mothers' Club Character Party was given in Stearns School Hall on Thursday evening. Prizes were awarded for the most original, humorous, and handsomest and a consolation prize offered to the entire group of contestants. Music, games and dancing were enjoyed and coffee and doughnuts served after the recreational program.

Pierce School

Many excellent compositions were written by Room 8 on the history of the shoe. Besides the one printed in this issue, the following pupils deserve honorable mention: Russell Harrington, Edward Burnham, Walter Woodward, Alfred Tedesco and Charles Milligan.

The pupils of Room 10 gave an interesting Lincoln program on February 11th. The following took part: Mary Ryan, Evelyn Chandler, Arlene McGourty, Edith Thompson, Paul Kenyon, Clayton Hoyt, Sarah Bronfman.

The best record for attendance was attained by Room 1, Grade 5. The class officers of the Eighth Grade have been elected. They are as follows: President, James Carter; vice-president, Carroll Leary; secretary, Mary Ryan; treasurer, Clayton Hoyt.

The pupils of Room 12 are bringing to school clippings about health. An article on that subject is read every morning by a member of the class. The bread-making club has elected its officers. Florence Ross, as president, Mary Ryan for vice-president, Mildred Eschelback, and for treasurer, Catherine Donohue.

Alice Eaton has been elected the president of the garment-making club. The eighth grades of the Mason are planning a theatre party for Saturday, March 5, to see Abraham Lincoln at the Hollis.

One of the sixth grades has an interesting table, with paper dolls as models. The pupils are dressed in daintily colored dresses demonstrate the body building properties of milk. At the class meeting last Friday, ten pupils of the eighth grade gave a play appropriate to the season, entitled "Abe, the Rail Splitter." It was much enjoyed by all.

Last Saturday the boys with Mr. Brainerd as leader had a jolly time coasting near Parker street. The present writing of the amount sent in for the starving children of China totals $108.77.

Lasell

Under the direction of the music department of Lasell, a pupils' recital was given on Wednesday evening. The program which was rendered by the advanced pupils was of exceptional merit and enjoyed by a large and enthusiastic audience.

There was a pupils' recital by the Woodland Park children on Friday afternoon, and a most delightful program given. Miss Gertrude Bull of the Woodland Park faculty has been called to her home in Cleveland on account of the death of her mother.

Mrs. Mary Haver, Thirfield, who is the national president of the Methodist Home Missionary Society, is to be the speaker at vespers on Sunday evening. Many out of town guests are attending the Senior dinner, which is being held at Woodland Hall this evening.

The Lexington-Lasell basketball game which was scheduled to take place on Thursday, was postponed until a later date. Last Saturday afternoon the Woodland Park children attended the performance of "Abraham Lincoln."

POLICE NOTES

The source of an extraordinary amount of bad liquor was discovered Wednesday by the Newton police in the Langley road section. Antonio Orelanello sold a bottle of cognac to a laborer yesterday. After the money had changed hands, the laborer removed a bit of his clever disguise and turned out to be Patrolman John J. Forristall of the Newton Police Department. He arrested Orelanello, and later, Sgt. Kyte, with Patrolmen Dolan and McLaughlin, raided Orelanello's place at 745 Beacon street. Another bottle of cognac was discovered in the house.

Tuesday Orelanello was in the West Newton court on a charge of selling liquor and was fined $200. He paid $150 and was given until Thursday to get the other $50.

WELLESLEY FUND

The Newton committee in charge of the Wellesley College Fund has planned to give two presentations of moving pictures to help raise their share of the Fund. Stevenson's "Treasure Island" will be given this Saturday at 2:30 in Bray Hall, and in the evening "Always Audacious" will also be given. This play was written by Mr. Ben Ames Williams, formerly of Newton Centre, now of Newtonville.

WOMAN'S ASSOCIATION OF CENTRAL CHURCH

The regular monthly luncheon of the Woman's Association of Central Church was held on Wednesday, Mrs. W. O. Hunt, Chairman.

The speaker of the afternoon was Mr. Sigmund Adler, who spoke on "Immigration and Some of Its Difficulties."

After giving some reminiscences of his own childhood and experiences as an immigrant to this country, he went on to say that in considering the immigrant, it is necessary to consider his background. Nearly all of the immigrants who come to us, come from lands in which they are oppressed. They come seeking freedom, a freedom which they do not always find.

Among the difficulties which they experience over here, he mentioned the long, often unnecessary delay at Ellis Island, and the question of transportation. There is, he said, a sort of "gentleman's agreement" among railroad men in regard to the disposition of the immigrant. Too often he is sent a round about way to his destination instead of the more direct route because of the pressure of railroad officials.

The difficulty of making himself understood is, of course, always great, and of late years, the difficulty of getting a job has been exceedingly great. Some foreigners have gone so far as to get themselves arrested in order to obtain a bed and food. Mr. Adler held the large employers responsible for the state of things.

Mr. Adler then went on to explain in detail the difficulties in the way of becoming naturalized, and of how the immigrant in his ignorance, is often deceived by the politician. He himself voted for a number of years, although he had not taken out his second papers, believing that first papers only were necessary.

Often, when the would-be citizen has made careful preparation for his citizenship papers, he is asked questions by the examiner which are obviously unfair, which he could not reasonably be expected to be able to answer. All this is very discouraging to the immigrant, as well as very expensive, as he has to pay the expenses and wages of his two witnesses who frequently have to come some distance.

The police, too, are often unsympathetic towards the immigrant, and arrest him for offenses of which he is ignorant of having committed. If we would inculcate a respect for law, we should take care that our police force represents the best in American life.

In regard to the way in which the immigrants live in this country, he said that conditions are such that they are compelled to live as they do, owing to the high cost of rent, and to the fact that desirable localities are often controlled by those who will not allow the foreigner to come among them. The foreigner seeks his own because, in many cases, he has no other place to go. It is physically impossible for the foreigner to produce as he should when compelled to live as he does.

There are children living under unspeakable conditions who go to our splendid schools, but, according to Mr. Adler, the home conditions are offsetting what the school tries to teach. Mr. Adler suggested that laws be passed to compel better living conditions. In concluding he said that Americanization, like religion, is caught not taught.

Following Mr. Adler, Mr. Lichtler made a few remarks, in favor of true Americanism without snobbery or prejudice. "Nothing," he said, "is going to help America except a genuine liberalism, a meeting of the immigrant, on terms of equality."

OPEN HOUSE AT THE Y. M. C. A.

On Wednesday, March 2nd, the Newton Y. M. C. A. building was thrown open to members and friends. Nearly 300 were present to enjoy the program arranged by the Social Committee.

In the gym two groups of business men played volleyball. The Newton Midgets played a basket ball team from the Hosmer School of Watertown, and teams representing young people's societies from Newton and Watertown played a very interesting game of basket ball.

In the swimming pool Newton won the swimming meet from Malden. All the games and bowling alleys were free to the women and many of them took the opportunity to show their skill at billiards and bowling. A fine concert was given by the Newton Constabulary Band which played in the lobby during the evening. Mr. Harry Owens leading. This concert was arranged through the courtesy of Mr. P. C. Newall, the business manager, and added much to the enjoyment of those present.

The speaker on Monday evening, March 7th, at the Fellowship Club will be Mr. Y. C. Yang, a native of Korea. His subject will be, "The Japanese Political Program." Supper will be served to club members and their friends at 6:30. Mr. Yang will speak soon after 7 o'clock.

UNDER THE GILDED DOME

Committee hearings on important matters have been held the past two weeks. Censorship of moving pictures brought out a crowd last week. Maternity benefits required three sessions of the committee and this week, the so-called 2.75 bill filled the auditorium to capacity.

Representative Rice as House Chairman of Education will probably have a large share of responsibility in the so-called physical training bill which will undoubtedly be reported by that committee. Mr. Rice assures the writer that residents of Newton need have no concern over this measure as Newton already is doing far more in physical training than the bill, if enacted, will require.

Representative Early, as House chairman of the committee on State Administration will have a hand in the fate of the state constabulary and the motorcycle police which are somewhat in the public eye.

One of the most spectacular hearings of the week was that before Judiciary on bills submitted by Attorney General J. Weston Allen to curtail some of the tremendous power now exercised by district attorneys. Mr. Allen is not popular with the district attorneys of Suffolk and Middlesex Counties, to say the least, particularly in Suffolk, and Mr. Pelletier of Suffolk, not only opposes Mr. Allen's bills but has some of his own which would limit the powers of the attorney general.

In connection with this matter the following abstract from a recent article from the Globe correspondent, may be of interest:

"There is still another influence which is working against Mr. Allen and that is his unpopularity among many of the politicians, big and little, at the State House. They are jealous of him. They did not take him seriously when he first became a candidate for Attorney General and they have never forgiven him for his success in obtaining that office.

The advertising he has received in the past two or three years through his activities in different lines of work have still more offended the politicians. Mr. Allen was chairman of the Legislative committee which showed the conditions in the fish industry in the State and the facts which that committee discovered led to the subsequent court proceedings.

Through the publication of Mr. Hurlburt's report in connection with the investigation of automobile thefts Mr. Allen was held enough to reflect on powerful county officials. He is chairman of the commission which has recently submitted bills designed to prevent the recurrence of frauds like the one perpetrated by Ponzi and the sale of worthless securities. And he is now acting as the agent of the Commonwealth in a legal tangle with the city of Rochester, N. Y., which may lead to the deposit of $500,000, more or less, in the treasury of the state. That is 'like finding money.'

However much this publicity may offend the politicians who do not like Mr. Allen, there can be no question that it is making him one of the prominent figures in Massachusetts politics, and that he will have to be considered when the time comes for nominating new candidates for the high State offices which at present are in the control of the Republican party."

Another hearing which called out a full house, was that on the anti-vaccination bills. Heretofore the anti-vaxers have had a clear field but this year the "regulars" came back with a bill to extend the requirements of vaccination.

nation to pupils of private schools. Labor Unions were up in arms on Wednesday on a bill to allow the operation of steam plants with but one licensed engineer or fireman on the job, instead of having all employees, so licensed as is the present law. A few manufacturers favored the bill but the majority of those present strongly opposed the matter on the ground of danger.

Yesterday the daylight saving matter was reported by the committee favoring a reduction in time from 7 months to 5 months. This compromise is said to be satisfactory to all concerned.

Residents of this city who are interested in the birds of Massachusetts will be glad to learn that the matter has been favorably reported by two committees.

MR. OTTERSON DEAD

Trainmaster F. J. Ottersson of the Boston & Albany railroad died yesterday morning at his home, 191 Auburndale avenue, Auburndale, from pneumonia. He had been ill since February 22.

Mr. Ottersson was widely known as a very efficient railroad man, having come up through the ranks. He was born in Liverpool, Eng., on March 21, 1873. He entered the service of the B. & A. as a fireman on March 20, 1893; was promoted to locomotive engineer on January 1, 1903; assistant trainmaster on May 9, 1917. While employed as a locomotive engineer he was also general chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, general committee of adjustment, on the Boston & Albany railroad.

Funeral services will be held on Sunday afternoon.

GIRL SCOUTS RALLY

Interesting and Enthusiastic Meet Won by Troop 3 with Troop 5 a Close Second

About 300 guests witnessed the Girl Scout Rally which was held on Saturday afternoon, February 26, in the Gymnasium of the Newton High School, and they proved a very much interested and a most enthusiastic audience.

At 2.30 precisely First Call was sounded by the first corps of buglers. This was followed almost immediately by assembly, after which the troops marched around the hall, headed by the Bugle and Drum Corps. They made a fine appearance, 250 Girl Scouts. Each troop carried its Troop Flag, as well as a National Flag, and the many banners gave a very festive air to the whole company.

After the opening ceremony, followed by the report by the Captains, the troops were seated and the Competitions began.

There was a Knot-Tying Relay Race which was won by 4, Troop 2 won second place in this event and Troop 3 came in number 3. Only girls 12 years old or under entered this race, so the teams were made up of younger Scouts.

Troop 5 won the marching contest, Troop 3 getting second place, while Troop 4 won third place. This was a very close contest, as all the Patrols marched well and Troops 3, 4 and 5 had to go out on the floor a second time before the Judges could make a final choice.

Troop 2 took first place in the Semaphoric contest, Troop 1 was second and Troop 5 third.

The folk dance contest was won by Troop 3. This was a very pretty event. Each troop entered a group of 12 girls and each group danced a folk dance called "Gathering Peascods." This dance was taught to the officers at the leaders' meetings and they in turn taught the scouts.

Troop 5 won second place in this contest and Troop 2 came in third. In the first aid contest, Troop 6 won first place, Troop 7 getting second place and Troop 5 third place. In this contest each troop had a team of 4 girls, first aiders and a patient. At the signal to begin the aiders began, one at a time to bandage up their own particular patient. One scout put her arm in a sling, another scout put on a jaw bandage, then another put splints on for a sprained ankle and the last scout bandaged the forearm, using a figure of eight. This was a most interesting event and the judges who were trained nurses said the scouts did very fine work.

Of course there was an obstacle race. There always is at a rally, and the one arranged for this rally was quite unique. There were 12 girls on a team and each troop entered a team. The first girl in the line was given a book which she had to balance on her head while she walked half way down the hall. There she stopped, knelt down before a stool and did up her book in a piece of paper and tied it neatly with string, then she ran to the further end of the hall and gave her bundle to a judge and ran back and touched the second scout in line.

This scout ran across the hall, got the book, stopped at the stool, undid it, left the paper and string there and ran back to the line when the next girl started off and did what the first one did, and so on until the last girl in the line was through. Speed, neatness of bundles, dropping the book on the floor and the condition of the paper at the end, all counted when deciding what troop won this event. Wellesley, the visiting troop, came first. Troop 7 was second and Troop 3 third.

When the points were added up it was found that Troop 3 had won the most points, 8 in number, and the Newton banner was given to that troop by Troop 4, who won it at the last rally. Troop 5 won second place in the rally, having 7 points, while Troop 2 came third, with 6 points.

The trials for the champion bugler and champion drummer were most interesting. In the finals for the bugle contest were Scout Elizabeth Plimpton, who won the cup last Spring; Scout Marion Maxim, Scout Geraldine Lowell and Scout Nina Maconi, all girls from Troop 3. Elizabeth Plimpton was the winner and many cheers were given her as she received the cup a second time.

In the finals for the drumming contest were Scout Clara Smith, Troop 4; Scout Nancy Kimball, Troop 4, holder of the cup, and Scouts Eleanor Gile and Bessie Crosby of Troop 5. Again the last year's winner won again and wild applause greeted Nancy Kimball when she took the cup back to her troop.

The Bugle and Drum Corps, Miss Mary Sprague, Captain, and Elizabeth Donovan, Drum Major, gave a very fine exhibition. This corps certainly is to be congratulated for the work they are doing and Newton has reason to be proud of its Girl Scout Bugle and Drum Corps.

Next week we will print the list of Merit Badges which were given out at this Rally. It was the largest number ever given out to the Newton Girl Scouts at any one time and it took in a great many different tests.

Mrs. Hart, Commissioner for the Massachusetts Girl Scouts, was present at the rally and spoke to the girls and the council. It was a fine rally, the best yet, the Scouts say, and they are already beginning to talk about the one which will come next February.

MR. GEOFFREY BAKER

THE VALUE OF A DOLLAR

Newton Free Library

The old anecdote says that "George Washington threw a dollar across the Potomac," but the witty comment on this historic anecdote was that "A dollar went farther in those days." In the discussion of current levels of price, after all allowance has been made for scarcity, demand, and special war-time pressure, there is no doubt that the most important influence in measuring the difference between prices now and some years ago lay in the fact that the dollar did go farther in those days.

Authorities in matters of money and currency have pointed out that when the amount of money represented in national bonds, in short-time notes and printed currency has been increased to many times the former totals there cannot but be a decrease in the value of every dollar, a decrease in its purchasing power. Those who can remember back over America's experience after the Civil War have pointed out that the effect of the inflation in the last few years has been more radical than it was at that time. A bulletin, issued by the Federal Reserve Bank, points to price levels in 1864-5 to about 230 per cent, or about the same as has been reached just after this war.

As book prices have increased in the past two years much less than other merchandise, it is not without interest to compare what happened to books between 1869 and 1870. A list of titles, selected from publishers' catalogs of that time, shows that there was an average increase of about 80 per cent; for instance, the following table, gathered from the catalogs of that time:

Author	Title	Before Civil War	1870	1915	1920
Abbott, J. S. C.	Napoleon Bonaparte	$5.00	$10.00	$5.00	$10.00
Abbott, Jacob	Franconia Stories	.50	.90	.60	.80
Abbott, Jacob	Biographical Histories	.80	1.20	.50	1.00
Collins, Wilkie	The Woman in White	1.00	2.00	1.25	1.75
Lossing	Field Book, Am. Rev.	8.00	14.00	7.00	10.00
Mulock	Stories	.75	1.25	1.00	1.50
Bronte	Jane Eyre	.75	1.50	1.75	2.25

WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

For many years now the Massachusetts State Federation has been working toward an Endowment Fund. Many things have come up from time to time to divert attention from it. In the early part of the 1900's some of the older club women will recall that a bazaar was held by the State Federation in Horticultural Hall, Boston, and a considerable sum was netted, much of which, if the Club Editor's memory serves her rightly, was devoted to the sustaining of the Model School in Georgia. After that work was transferred to local agencies, a balance remained which was held as a reserve or emergency fund. Some years later, when Mrs. George W. Perkins was the president, there was a re-organization of the finances and this sum was turned over as the nucleus of an Endowment Fund of $25,000, which it was voted to raise immediately. The trustees of that time decided that none of the income of the fund should be used until the whole amount should be secured. Plans were well underway for another big bazaar when we entered the war, so that was abandoned, the clubs being asked to contribute a small sum each instead. Since that time nothing further has been done. Today the fund stands at $20,986.02, and it is the purpose of the present administration to complete the work this spring, that the much-needed income may be available. A word to the Newton clubs is sufficient. See to it that each does something.

State Federation

Tuesday, March 8. Neighborhood Day at Dorchester Woman's Club House. At 10.30, Mrs. Irving O. Palmer will speak on "The Business of Living" before the Home Economics section; at 2.30, Mothercraft conference in the Dorchester high school hall. Mothercraft film, "Children Well and Happy" will be shown accompanied by appropriate music.
Thursday, March 10, 10.30 A. M. and 2.00 P. M. State Conference on Conservation at Memorial Hall, Melrose. The program will include an illustrated bird lecture by Mrs. Harriet L. Goode in the morning, and discussion on fire prevention, state forests, Yellowstone Park and the amendment to the Federal water power bill in the afternoon. Box luncheon.

Local Announcements

Mrs. W. J. Bicknell will entertain the Newton Highlands Shakespear Club tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. S. L. Eaton is in charge.

"Woman's Service in her Community" is the subject of the lecture which Miss Mabel Hill, of Dana Hall School, Wellesley, will give before the Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club next Monday evening in the Auditorium.

The Newton Mothers' Club will meet with Mrs. Leon B. Rogers, 28 Lenox street, West Newton, Monday afternoon, March 7th. Rev. Brewer Eddy will be the speaker.

Mrs. E. G. Swift will be hostess for the meeting of the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. next Monday afternoon. Mrs. Emery Clark is in charge of the reading of King Henry IV, Part I.

The Auburndale Review Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Edward J. Frost, 379 Central street, on March 8.

Mrs. Grace M. Poole speaks on current events before the Newtonville Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon, March 8th.

At the meeting of the Newton Social Science Club next Wednesday morning, Mrs. Frederick J. Fawcett will present a paper on Modern Drama, considering the work of William Vaughn Moody, Clyde Fitch, and Charles Rann Kennedy.

Dr. Alfred E. Stearns, headmaster of Phillips Andover Academy, will speak before the Newton Community Club under the auspices of the Education Committee Thursday, March 10. His subject will be "Youth and its Present Day Handicaps." Dr. Stearns is a brilliant speaker and brings in this lecture the results of wide experience in the educational world and, therefore, can speak with authority upon the problems which confront both the parent and the teacher. All mothers in the club should welcome this opportunity for a full and free discussion of these vital questions. Special invitation is being extended to prominent educators in the community to attend.

On Thursday, March 10th, Mrs. Grace M. Poole will speak before the Newton Centre Woman's Club on current events. At 11.30, there will be a twenty-minute talk upon "Municipal Organization and Management," by Mr. Percy M. Blake.

The next meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club, Mar. 11th, is to be devoted to current events with Mrs. William C. Crawford as the speaker. Music will be furnished from the West Newton Music School. There will be a social hour with tea.

The fourth luncheon of the Home Economics class of the club will be held on Wednesday, March 9th, at the home of Mrs. George W. St. Amant. The subject of discussion will be Clothing with Miss Blanchard as speaker.

Local Happenings

The Legislative Day of the Newton Community Club last week brought out more discussion from the floor than any meeting the club has yet held, the fertile question of censorship of moving pictures being responsible for most of it.

After the usual business, Miss Lucy Crane, formerly of the Newton Library, explained the provisions of the so-called physical training bill. Mrs. Ralph C. Henry presented the "coal bills," both Federal and state, which were endorsed by vote of the club.

She also spoke of the bills for forest fire prevention, by which the national government shall assist the state authorities in meeting the expense for proper preventive measures. This was likewise endorsed.

A debate on the question of censorship of motion pictures concluded the program. Mr. Edward H. Chandler, secretary of the Twentieth Century Club, spoke in favor, citing the great amount of objectionable stuff which one gets in the best of the shows. A large proportion of the pictures turn upon the sex question, they bring out more intimately all the ghastly details than when portrayed on the real stage, for they can leave nothing to the imagination. He explained that the existing laws are not sufficient, because of the length of time necessary to invoke them and that local censorship does not work because of varying standards. Miss Edith Haynes, speaking in opposition, claims that there are sufficient laws already upon the statute books. She stated that those who favor censorship are not the regular patrons, that they are more critical than the general public and harder to satisfy, that the club women who are agitating the matter are not the contemporaries of those who frequent the picture houses, that the younger generation from 21 to 35 are the best judges. She claimed that giving so great a power to a small board, as the present measure provides, is tantamount to a dictatorship. In Maryland, where the Pennsylvania where state censorship exists, people are dissatisfied as they are here. Considerable discussion came from the floor and upon being put to vote the bill was endorsed almost unanimously.

Mrs. Frank P. Schofield, who was in charge of the afternoon, presented the prohibition code for re-endorsement, also the maternity benefits bill, and the one providing for state control of penal institutions, all of which received the endorsement of the club.

The Christian Era Study Club held an enjoyable meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Hyde of Vista avenue. Mrs. Herbert Case, Mrs. George Hyde, Mrs. N. G. Grant, Mrs. Harry Perkins and Mrs. J. F. Dunton read portions of King Lear. At the business meeting the nominating committee and the program committee for next year were appointed.

A large audience of members and guests of the Newtonville Woman's Club completely filled the chapel of the Central Congregational Church on Tuesday evening to visit the "Old New England Gardens," as shown by Mr. Loring Underwood, and all were much interested in the description and charmed with the beautiful pictures, which are taken by the new process of color photography.

Mrs. John S. White, Mrs. Gifford LeClear and Mrs. Frederick G. Marsh were hostesses for the regular meeting of the Waban Woman's Club on Monday afternoon. The club voted to endorse the five bills endorsed by the State Federation. Moving Picture Censorship, Physical Training, Maternity Benefits, Prohibition Code and the State Control of Penal Institutions.

The speakers of the day were Major Joseph W. Bartlett and Mr. George M. Angier, this meeting being "Our City Day." Major Bartlett spoke on "Municipal Government," and left no doubt in the minds of his audience as to the fact that the people of Newton are most fortunate in their city government. Mr. Angier told of the work of the Red Cross—especially of the Newton Chapter. He gave several interesting examples of the good work being done,—not to mention some of the obstacles met in performing the same. He also spoke of the proposed memorial to the soldiers of the late war, and showed several interesting photographs of a building that has been suggested for the use of the Legion.

There were two interesting and well rendered piano solos by John Andrews and a group of three delightful songs by Mrs. Gifford LeClear. Tea was served.

At the meeting of the Social Science Club on Wednesday morning, Mrs. Fred H. Tucker made an earnest plea for women to stand for disarmament, feeling that all else is of little avail, if the world is going to pile up armaments and lay the foundations for another war in the near future, as she feels is imminent in Europe.

A large part of the time was spent in consideration of the legislative matters and those bills endorsed by the State Federation which had not already been acted upon, were endorsed by the club as well as the "coal" bill. It was voted to hold the annual luncheon at the Brae Burn Country Club. Considerable time was devoted to the discussion of next year's program.

"The Winslow Porringer," given by the Auburndale Review Club on Guest Night, was repeated on Wednesday evening of this week in the Methodist Parish house before an audience which filled nearly every available seat. The parts were taken as on the previous evening, and all were very well sustained. Mrs. Arthur F. Farley as Mary Chilton was altogether charming, and Mrs. Stephen E. Wright as Squanto, the English-speaking Indian, brought down the house in her delineation of the drawing, non-committal Red man. Piano duets by Mrs. Nelson Freeman and Mrs. Hall filled in the time between the acts and were much enjoyed.

NEWTON CLUB

The Newton Club entertained the Waban Neighborhood Club last Friday evening at the Newton Club. About seventy-five from the Neighborhood Club were present. There were contests in bowling, whist, pool and billiards, the Newton Club winning.

Dancing and refreshments followed the various contests. Mrs. Albert M. Lyon and Mrs. Lester B. Hunter poured. The hostesses of the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hunting, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ripley, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bloomfield, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Bankart, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Arend, and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Bankart.

Mr. Francis W. Davis of the Waban Neighborhood Club invited the members of the Newton Club to be the guests of the Neighborhood Club on April 9th.

The ladies of the club have started a bowling tournament, consisting of ten teams. They bowl on Monday and Friday afternoons, while the men's bowling teams bowl on Monday and Friday evenings.

DEATH OF MRS. PRISCILLA J. COX

Mrs. Priscilla J. Cox, wife of John W. Cox of 150 Tremont street, Newton, passed away at her home Tuesday morning after several months' illness. Mrs. Cox was a sister of the late Mrs. George O. Vikerson of Waltham. She was a member of the First Methodist Church of Newton and was a woman of fine Christian character. Besides her husband, she leaves a son, Wallace Cox of Newton, and a daughter, Mrs. Edward Taylor of Everett, formerly of Waltham; also two sisters, Mrs. James York and Mrs. E. J. McKinnon of Boston and several nephews and nieces, among whom are Mrs. Winifred B. Caswell and Mrs. Walter Bryson of this city. The funeral services were held at her late home Thursday, the Rev. George S. Butters of Auburndale and the Rev. Charles W. Bashares of Newton officiating. Mrs. Arthur S. Flinn sang.

NEWTON Y. M. C. A. NOTES

A committee of four, consisting of H. T. Dougherty, T. R. Lockwood, C. C. Perry, and H. W. Bascom, had the privilege of distributing more than $3,000 in scholarships to ex-service men. Below is the report:

The district over which they had jurisdiction included Waltham and part of Watertown. Sixty-seven men received scholarships. Seventeen of these men were located in Waltham, sixteen in Newton, fourteen in Watertown, five in Newton Centre, five in Auburndale, five in West Newton, three in Newtonville, and one each in Waban and Newton Highlands.

The most popular course selected by the men was the business course chosen by 24. Next was the automobile course, which 16 attended, and the engineering and law courses with 7 applicants each. These applicants attended 17 different schools and colleges.

Most of the men were granted only part of their tuition and satisfied the committee that they were going on with their education beyond the first year. This is the final report, as there are no more funds available for this work.

The board of directors voted to open a school in commerce and finance, which would be a branch of Northeastern College. This school will be opened at the Newton Association next fall.

The total membership of the association at present lacks 19 of being 1,000. There was a gain of 12 last month.

Boys' Department Notes

On Saturday afternoon at the Newton Y. M. C. A. a group of grammar school boys, representing Wakefield "Y," competed against Newton's stars. The events were closely contested from start to finish, the winner not being settled until the finals in the swimming tank came off.

When the finals were called, Frank Perry of Newton lost to Burrage of Malden in checkers, two out of three. Ping-pong found Foster of Wakefield with Tracy of Wakefield, but Foster proved the real find and won out. Macpherson of Newton won from Melanson of Wakefield in ping-pong, which gave Newton a slight lead, only to lose it on the pocket-pool, in which both Newton boys, Tom Sutcliffe and P. Campbell, lost to Russell and Robbins of Wakefield. In the 20-yard dash in the gymnasium, Wakefield won with Newton taking second and third. The running high jump also went to Wakefield first and second, and Newton third. The relay on the track found each team winning one. Newton cleaned up in basketball, 5 to 2, and also won in the medicine ball hustle. Up to this stage of events Newton was trailing by five points. But Barnes won the 20-yard swim, and the team composed of Barnes, Foster, and Macpherson won the relay, so Newton forged to the front, making the final score of Newton 36 and Wakefield 29.

Officials for the meet were Smith and Finney of Wakefield, and Cross, Cunningham, Eden, and Bang of Newton.

BOY SCOUTS

During the month of February approximately one hundred new Scouts will have come into Norumbega Council. This is a most remarkable advance and shows with what interest the boys of Newton are taking hold of the work. The Court of Honor, under Deputy Commissioner Leland has been kept busy examining these boys, and the prospects predict a continuance of this influx to the Boy Scout Movement.

The Scout Movement appeals to the growing lad. It combines pleasure with knowledge. The boy seeks to do something creative, and this he finds in studying the necessary requirements for entering the Scouts. A boy cannot be a Scout by the simple act of paying registration fees of 50 cents a year. He cannot be a Scout by the choice of a Troop. He must be able to pass certain tests, and must promise to do his best to "Do my duty to God and my Country, and to obey the Scout Law; To help other people at all times and to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight."

The Test that makes a boy a Scout upon joining a Troop is as follows: Could you pass it?

1. Repeat the Scout Oath and Law and explain as directed.
2. Give the Scout sign and salute, and explain their uses.
3. Explain the origin and significance of the Scout Badge.
4. Repeat and explain the Scout Motto.
5. Distinguish Scout officers.
6. Give the History of the American Flag from its inception to its final adoption by Congress.
7. What are the customary respects due the Flag?
8. Tie the following knots: Square, Sheet Bend, Bowline, The Fisherman's Knot, Sheepshank, Halter, Clove Hitch, Timber Hitch, Two Half Hitches, and know their uses.

The Court of Honor will meet in the basement of the Bigelow School, Friday evening, at 7:30. Mr. Jerome M. Carley, the Scoutmaster, has prepared several Tenderfoot Scouts for Second Class Tests, and a number of candidates await admission to the troop.

Mr. Carley's Troop meets every Friday evening at 7:30 at the Bigelow School. He has a splendid corps of assistants and will welcome any boys who are 12 years of age and prospective candidates to the meetings on Friday.

TO THE PARENTS OF THE MASON AND RICE SCHOOLS

The second in series of Community Meetings being held by the Newton Centre Woman's Club, in the interest of our schools, will be held March 16 at 3:30 in Mason School Room.

The support you gave this movement on January 21 exceeded our highest hopes. We are counting on your presence very much on this date. Please reserve the 16th for an interesting afternoon.

—Mr. Louis Fabian Bachrach has just returned from a trip to Jackson, N. H., spent at the Eagle Mountain House with the Appalachian Mountain Club.

—The marriage is announced of Mrs. Henrietta H. Ames of Highland street and Hon. George Hutchinson of Chestnut street. The ceremony was performed last week Wednesday by Rev. Julian C. Jaynes and Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson are now at Atlantic City for a wedding trip. On their return they will reside on Highland street.

—The monthly supper of the Lincoln Park Baptist Church was held on Wednesday. The B. M. C. class had a special table at the supper. Members of the Home Department were also included. After the supper an interesting entertainment was provided. The members of the church and parish took this opportunity to get acquainted with their new pastor, Rev. Fred W. Peakes.

—Mr. Charles E. Bramer of Hunter street has consented to act as Community Recorder for this village. He will be glad to keep a record of all meetings and social engagements here in as far as note of them is sent to him, and will be glad to inform anyone interested as to whether any particular date is free from conflicting engagements.

—Joseph Lovely, aged forty, residing on Eddy street, sustained severe injuries when he fell from a Middlesex & Boston car on Watertown street, near Nevada, on Sunday afternoon. The injured man was removed to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance where it is reported that he is resting comfortably although suffering from multiple bruises about the head and shoulders.

—Mrs. Caroline J. Barker of West Newton quietly celebrated her 94th birthday last Friday with a small gathering which was confined to the members of her family, who gathered at her home for a dinner at one o'clock. Mrs. Barker, who is the widow of Mr. Aaron Barker of West Newton, is in excellent health. She was born in West Newton on Feb. 6, 1827, and is the daughter of the late Elias and Elizabeth Jennison, both natives of West Newton, where they were born respectively in 1797 and 1798. Mrs. Barker has three children, all sons, four grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild, thus making her the head of a family which at present includes five generations.

PROPOSED CHANGES OF BEACON STREET-WARDS INDICATED BY DOTTED LINES

The Newton Centre Improvement Association has been active during the past year and has brought about some few changes and improvements in Newton Centre. This Association works quietly and a great deal of time is given by its Officers and Executive Committee to improvements which make for the benefit of all who live in Newton Centre.

Below is a diagram showing the stretch of Beacon street, bordering the Mason School grounds. How many people realize what a dangerous spot this narrow street is to the children who attend this school? Many narrow escapes from death or serious injury have been observed and can be observed almost daily. Not only are children carelessly running into the street for footballs and baseballs at recess time, but in going to and from school they cross the street at any and all points to get into the grounds.

Autoists naturally try, as a rule, to be careful near school buildings and grounds but it is too much to hope that unless some measures are taken at once to render this stretch safer, a serious accident will not take place sooner or later.

A heavy traffic street such as this is for practically its full length should not become a bottle neck exactly at the point where a large school is located.

To remedy this the Association has given the matter a great deal of time and thought, and the plan as shown will make clear what is proposed.

1st. To widen Beacon street at this point.

2nd. To build an ornamental fence along this side from the corner of Beacon street and Langley road, bringing this fence around the Langley road side a sufficient distance to insure best protection, and extending it to a point practically opposite the new Bank Bldg.

Definite entrance points to the yard will be provided at two points only, thus forcing concentration at these points where the best protection can be afforded.

This plan has the hearty endorsement of the Newton Planning Board the City Engineer, the School Committee and the Newton Centre Woman's Club, and in the judgment of the Executive Committee should be put through as soon as the weather will permit.

Those taking part were Lilla Ritchey, Eleanor Leacy, Blanche Leacy, Ethel Murray, St. Clare Bennett, Russell McCassey, Harvey McCuen.

MARQUERADE

A very delightful masquerade was held last Friday evening in Mrs. Francis E. Stanley's Hall by the members of Miss Marjorie Warren's dancing class.

There were costumes representing all phases of life from a cardinal to a clown. Among the most interesting were a beetle costume, Pierrot, a snow costume, several ballet costumes, several pages' costumes, riding costumes, boys dressed as girls and visa versa. The surprise of the evening was when Miss Marjorie Warren, who was dressed as a little girl, took off her mask. During the evening Miss Frances Warren had impersonated Miss Marjorie and had charge of the festivities, so that Miss Marjorie's unmasking came as a great surprise.

What I Owe to My Parents. "One good mother is worth a hundred schoolmasters." The truth of this time-honored proverb is borne out by the tributes which successful men pay to the influence of their mothers.

Our Aldermen are fully in sympathy with the plan and can be counted upon to do their part but public sentiment must express itself definitely, so you will be asked to sign a petition requesting the City to proceed as outlined.

The second point shown on the plan, which has been the scene of several serious accidents and numerous near-accidents, is at the junction of Beacon and Walnut streets.

It is proposed by the Executive Committee to have the City round off these corners as shown on the plan. It will be recalled that going from Newton Centre this junction point is at the bottom of a steep grade where traffic is heavy both ways and street cars operate between Newtonville and Newton Highlands. The view is obscured not only by buildings but by bill-boards, and the remedy lies in the plan herein shown.

There are other points which should have attention as soon as may be, but these two are the most vital and constitute an every day menace to many people and action is demanded at once.

INCREASE GARBAGE APPROPRIATION

Aldermen Vote Additional $10,000 to Contractor After Discussion—Turn Down Sunday Ice Cream Measure

The controversy over an additional appropriation of $10,000 for the collection of garbage was the chief item of interest at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night. William Mague, who holds the contract, at the rate of $12,000 a year, had asked for a similar amount in addition, and the $10,000 was to carry on the work. Despite opposition the appropriation was voted.

Alderman Carter opposed the adoption of the order and submitted for consideration a resolution requesting the mayor to appoint an examiner to go over the books of the contractor, who asserted that he has been losing $22,000 a year under the old figures. This examiner would make a complete report on the entire matter, said examination to be for a period of three months. The resolution further provided that if the said report showed that the contractor was actually losing money that the Board would then consider an appropriation dating back to March 8. Alderman Carter stated that in his opinion the Board had not had sufficient information to act on the matter; that the contractor had submitted to the committee only a memorandum of his payrolls, with nothing to show his receipts from the sale of garbage and logs, and that there was some difference of opinion as to the exact amount of equipment he is using in his work.

President Harriman, in seconding the resolution, suggested that the period of examination be restricted to one month, which suggestion was accepted by Alderman Carter. The president pointed out that there has been discussion before on this subject and pointed out that the interests of the contractor were protected in the resolution.

Aldermen Phipps and Nichols opposed the resolution, stating that in their opinion the ground had been covered by the members of the aldermanic committee. They declared that if the additional amount was not appropriated it was quite possible the contractor might give up the work and forfeit his bond, and that to properly protect the interests of the city immediate action should be taken. On the question of substituting the resolution for the order only four members voted in favor. The order was then adopted, 16 being in favor and Aldermen Carter, Ross and Young voting nay.

There was also discussion on the question of accepting sections 7 and 8, Chapter 136, of the General Law, relative to licenses to sell ice cream, etc., on Sunday. Alderman Young reminded the Board that in previous years the vote has been unanimous against this measure. The acceptance of the sections was defeated by a vote of 11 to 7.

A short recess meeting of the Committee of the Whole was held and upon resuming business Alderman Phipps, on behalf of the committee, submitted a resolution accepting the report of the special committee on City Hall and soldiers' memorial. This report recommends the erection of an artistic memorial and civic building, both to be placed on property owned by the city and adjacent to the Technical High School. The memorial is the design of Henry Bacon of New York and the civic building the design of a Boston architect.

The approximate cost of the plan is $500,000 and the committee recommends that at least one-half shall be raised by popular subscription and the balance appropriated by the city. The resolution, before being unanimously adopted, was so amended as to state that it is the opinion of the Board that the time is not opportune for raising funds by subscription and asks the Mayor to bring the matter before the Board when, in his opinion, the proper time has come.

There was no opposition to a petition of the Edison Company for a pole location on Baldwin street, Ward 7. William H. Mague opposed the petition of Michael H. Treddin for a permit to

RELIGION IN BUSINESS

Oliver M. Fisher Makes Interesting Address At Eliot Church Patriotic Services

An inspiring patriotic service was held in Eliot Church last Sunday evening in which Eliot and Channing Churches united.

Rev. H. Grant Person of the Eliot Church said that the meeting had been planned with special reference to seeking God's help in the affairs of the Nation.

Rev. Harry Lutz of Channing Church read Solomon's Prayer for Wisdom. Then was followed by a prayer for guidance in the affairs of the nation, and by the singing of patriotic songs.

The address of the evening was given by Mr. Oliver M. Fisher on "Religion in Business." He spoke as follows:

"It is a pleasant duty to respond to the call of my friend and neighbor, your pastor, to be with you here today. Mr. Clark, the great leader of the Christian Endeavor Society, has always said the success of that great movement was simply due to the young people getting together and working together with one common religious aim. What better thought could older people have than this for the future success of our Churches; a religious center with a social circumference. When I speak of religion, I do not mean any denomination or sect, but the universal religion of God our Father, and man our brother, and its obligations under the Golden Rule and the sermon on the mount, which we may take as our rule and guide in all the affairs of Church, Home, Business and Society. The simple faith of God our Father, and every man our brother, must include the sixty million so called unchurched people in the United States, who so rarely are seen within Church walls, but who nevertheless make up the great body of thinking religious people, who long for one universal faith so simple that all may understand, and follow in their daily lives; and they are hungry for some church to furnish it. The underlying material forces of this earth are not new. They have laid dormant for centuries awaiting development by man's insistent work. All these forces we are enjoying today; steam, electricity, waterpower, the explosive engine, the automobile, aircraft—all developed and adapted to our uses. These material forces that we are enjoying seem indeed wonderful, and new discoveries are daily coming to our notice, but our moral, intellectual and spiritual forces with which God

GAME BIRDS AND FISH

Subject of Talk Before Grace Church Men's Club Meeting Next Monday Night

Next Monday evening will be "Sons of Members" Night for the Grace Church Men's Club, and an interesting program has been arranged.

William C. Adams, Esq., of Newtonville, will be the speaker of the evening and will talk on "Massachusetts Game Birds and Fish." Mr. Adams, lawyer and sportsman, is a former member of the Fish and Game Commission, and since its reorganization has been in sole charge of its work as director of the Division of Fisheries and Game of the Department of Conservation. His address is sure to be a live and interesting story of a sportsman's experiences in the open.

The business session of the meeting will take up the question of how the club members can assist the committee in answering the church's call for $11,000 from the local parish.

ON HONOR ROLL

The War Savings Societies at the Gamewell Fire Alarm Telegraph Company's plant in Newton Upper Falls are given a place on the honor roll of typical industrial thrift organizations issued Wednesday by the industrial department of the Savings Division, First Federal Reserve District. These Gamewell societies have sixty members and their latest report shows sales of War Savings and Thrift Stamps amounting to $390.50 during the month.

ELKS' ELECTION

Local Lodge, at Annual Election Chooses W. L. Sampson as Lecturing Knight in Only Contest

At the annual election of officers of Newton Lodge, No. 1327, B. P. O. Elks, held last night, George P. Flood was chosen exalted ruler. In the only contest on the ballot, W. L. Sampson was elected lecturing knight over W. T. Hannigan.

Other officers chosen were: Esteemed leading knight, Dr. Howard Moore; esteemed loyal knight, Malcolm P. McKinnon; secretary, J. Edward Callahan; treasurer, Vincent M. Turley; tiler, Harry A. Hunt; trustee for three years, Bancroft L. Goodwin, P.E.R.; delegate to grand lodge, Charles S. Ensign, Jr.; alternate to grand lodge, Oswald J. McCourt, P.E.R.

The whist party and dance which was postponed from March 3 because of the death of Frank L. Lewis, one of the lodge members, will be held on the evening of Thursday, March 17.

NEWTON W. C. T. U.

The Newton W. C. T. U. met last Thursday with Mrs. Foster, Walnut street, and enthusiastically listened to Mrs. Lillian Saxe Holmes of the Executive Board of the Prison Reform League of Canada.

Mrs. Holmes' subject was "Modern Reformatory Methods." Last Spring she visited the new and beautifully situated Industrial School for Girls at Richmond, Va., remaining there several months. She spoke of her experience during that period with the girls of that institution. Virginia girls from fifteen to twenty-one, recruited from the ranks of factory workers, shop girls and chorus girls. Even in so new and modern an institution some of the methods of punishment were needed reform, and since she left Mrs. Holmes stated that the criticised punishments have been abolished.

In conclusion, she brought to her audience the thought that after all we are the builders of our own characters; our inheritances are but tendencies; and it lies with us to make and shape our lives. All of us if we so choose can make our characters of sterling quality.

An interesting discussion followed as to the spiritual needs of imprisoned girls.

GOOD BORROWERS

Good borrowers are necessary to any bank. The Waltham Trust Company invites patronage of Boston and suburban business men. Professional men, or business houses, contemplating division or changes in their banking will find their individual problems carefully handled.

During 1921, we will have over available for well managed and established enterprises.

On January 1st, of this year our LOAN DEPARTMENT did not hold one overdue business note secured or unsecured. Less than $100.00 of interest was due the bank by borrowers of all classes. During the past twenty years of banking operations only two mortgages have been necessary to foreclose.

Boston service is provided through our correspondents, the First National Bank of Boston, the National Shawmut Bank of Boston, and the Old Colony Trust Company. Arrange interview by phone or letter.

SCHOOL NOTES

Hyde School

Parents' Day was observed in the lower grades on Monday afternoon of last week and the attendance was quite large, in spite of unfavorable weather conditions.

The eighth grades are doing things, as usual. They have recently contributed $10.00 to the Hoover Child-Feeding Fund. The Hyde Monthly, edited by these grades, appeared this week and contains many interesting articles contributed from their classroom work. In their Vocational Guidance classes a debate was held last Friday on the query: Resolved that the Sailor Does More than the Soldier to Protect His Country. Both sides had very convincing arguments, the affirmative winning.

Miss Tabor's room, sixth grade, is at present making product maps in connection with their study of South America. A current events class, also, flourishes in this room. Marion Bonner is president and Janet Adams is secretary.

We are very glad to welcome Miss Timb back to the kindergarten after a week's illness.

The fourth grade, Miss Marguerite Green's room, have elected the following officers for their Junior Audubon Society: President, Boyce Godsoe; vice-president, Marion Stratton; Secretary, Nancy Ryther.

Miss Jewett's third grade had a perfect attendance record for three days last week.

The following pupils of the fifth grade, Miss Ryder's room, have been neither absent nor tardy this year: Eleanor Savage, Margaret Holderstroh, Mary Slevin, Alan Rust and Francis McKenna.

Miss Grant has made a panel crepe paper picture in colors illustrating a study of Hiawatha which her pupils of the sixth grade are now taking up.

The sixth grades recently dramatized part of their history work, showing the beginning of Christianity in England.

Classical High School

Last Monday, the English Club held its monthly meeting in the library. There were numerous new members present. Selections were given by Miss Helen Booth, Miss Deholl, Janet Eaton, and Miss Donovan. Roger Cummings, the secretary announced that there was $37 in the Club treasury.

As a result of the senior class vote, the "Newtonian" is to be dedicated to Mr. Jeremiah McMahon, better known to the students as "Jerry." Vantine & Vantine, of Boston, were chosen as the class photographers.

This Friday evening in the school assembly hall the Girls' Debating Club will debate Brookline. The question of the debate is "Resolved, that the United States should award the soldiers a bonus of $500, or its equivalent." Newton will have the negative side. During the intermission there will be selections by the Girls' Glee Club and the school orchestra.

The debate is open to the public. Tickets may be secured at the door.

The Spring vacation starts on Thursday, March 24, and will continue until Monday, April 4.

As it was decided not to play out the triple tie in the hockey league, Newton's season is now ended.

The "Review" for April will be the "Girls Number."

To date, Manager Norton of the "Newtonian" has received 525 subscriptions. With the aid of his assistants he is busy soliciting advertisements. Readers of the "Graphic" wishing to advertise or subscribe for this year book, have but to notify Norton and he will immediately get in touch with them.

There will be a Freshman dance in the gym on March 18.

Next week in the lecture hall the "Newtonian" will present motion pictures. The picture will be Douglas Fairbanks in "American Aristocracy."

NEWTONLant. ...
—The Sunshine Society made up of girls in Channing Sunday school is rehearsing a play, "Mrs. Tubb's Telegram," which they are to give in the church parlors on Friday evening, April 1st. The proceeds will go for the benefit of the Sunday school.

Stearns School

The children have given generously for the Chinese fund.

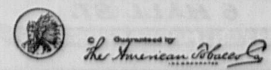

The rooms having the highest attendance this month were Miss Walker's, 97.1; Miss Eddington's, 97; Mr. Dacey's, 96.8.

The pupils of the Stearns School Branch of the West Newton Music School entertained the Mothers' Club at the bi-monthly meeting on Monday, Mar. 7th. Violin selections were given by John McCarthy, Paul Serkin, Arthur Marshall, Julia Canter, Loretta La Croix and Anthony Hayes. Piano selections were rendered by Fannie Kligman, Arthur Bergen, Mary Terrio, Estelle Cyr and Flora Poullot. A violin ensemble was enjoyed, played by David Quilley, Annette Roy, Gertrude Frechette and Herbert Fox. The program also included violin solos by Reuben Kligman, Amadio Desimone, Margaret Boudrot, and Mary Shea.

The members of the Girls' Club were the guests of the Mothers' Club at this meeting. A special feature of the program was to represent popular subjects of famous artists. These were participated in by ten of the members of the Mothers' Club.

Lasell

Prof. and Mrs. Charles F. Towne sailed from New York today on the S. S. Fort Victoria for Bermuda, where they will spend a two weeks' vacation. There was a very exciting and well-played basketball game at the school on Thursday between Lexington High and Lasell.

This afternoon Dr. G. M. Winslow lectured at the Allen Military School on Porto Rico.

Much interest is being taken by the girls in the swimming meet which is to be held Thursday of next week between the Blues and the Whites. This will be the second this year--the third in which not only the girls will compete for their companies but will be for personal honors as well, will come just before Commencement.

Miss Champlain of the Leland Powers School gave a very fine reading this afternoon which was much enjoyed by the student body.

The vespers on Sunday will be conducted by Rev. H. McIllyar Lichtler of Newbury.

A party to Washington is being formed for Easter vacation and will be in charge of Miss Potter.

Bigelow School

This morning in the Assembly Hall "letters" were awarded to those members of the Bigelow Hockey team who played in three-fourths of the scheduled games.

The following pupils were awarded the Hockey "B": Captain Alan Shaw, George White, Walter Schlepke, Wallace McPherson, Francis Monahan, and Frank Stubbs.

The election of the hockey captain for next year is to be held early next week.

The Chinese Fund contributions to date are as follows: Bigelow $171.89, and the Underwood $37, making a total of $208.89.

Miss Coyle's class had the highest attendance record for February. Their average was 96.6 per cent.

Last week Mr. Lane's division of 8th grade challenged Miss Dyer's division to a spelling contest. The challenge was accepted, and a picked team of 14 from each class met in the Assembly Hall on the afternoon of Monday, March 7th.

Miss Dyer's team was the winner with a score of 9 to 6. At an early date the winning team will compete with a picked team from the two 7th grades.

Burr School

Pupils of the Burr School are glad to learn that Mrs. Leighton is improving in health.

The pupils of the school have made enough money on the first three issues of the Echo to pay all expenses and support a French War Orphan for a year.

The posters and notebooks which the eighth grades have made in connection with their vocational guidance classes have been sent to the University for a Vocational Guidance Exhibit.

The February weighing was so successful that a bigger and more intense drive for gaining weight is now on.

The Swampscott Junior High School sent to the Editor-in-chief of the Echo two copies of their school paper in exchange for the Echo which were given to the two teachers who visited the school.

Several rooms are forming bird clubs in connection with the Audubon Society of Boston.

Ninety-eight pupils from the 7th and 8th grades saw "Abraham Lincoln" on Friday afternoon. A special car was kindly provided by the Boston & Albany R. R. so that the large number was well taken care of.

The reflectoscope of the school is being changed to an electric machine which will be much easier to use. The school is planning to have many lantern lessons soon.

Group Badges

A number of the Scouts have earned Group Badges but these have not been assigned as yet. The names of Officers and Scouts who have earned these Badges will be printed next week.

Miss Jeanne Kenrick, Head of the Household Arts Department, Vocational High School has had charge for arranging for these Merit Badge Tests. Every girl in Newton who has won a Badge should be deeply grateful to Miss Kenrick for having made it possible for her to earn the Badge. Merit Badge work has been very popular among the Scouts this year, as is shown by the large number of girls who have taken the tests. Instruction in the different subjects has been given in a number of Troops and the marks show a much higher standard of work done by the Troops, in almost every case.

The Examiners have given a great deal of time and thought to the tests, giving and correcting them, the Local Council as well as the Scouts themselves appreciate very keenly the time and interest that these busy people have given to the Scouts and which has done much towards making these Badges very much worth the winning.

Appropriating $1,400 for construction Chestnut and Fuller streets.

Appropriating $500 in advance of budget for Soldiers' Relief.

Granting Edison Co. location for 3 poles, Washington Park, Ward 2.

DEATH OF MR. PEABODY

Mr. Walter Bosson Peabody, son of Isaac M. Peabody and Mary Bosson Peabody, died at his home on Waban avenue, Waban, on Monday of pneumonia.

Mr. Peabody was a native of Newton, and was in his 49th year. He was President of the Boston Index Club, a Mason, and a member of the Kiwanis Club.

He is survived by his widow who was Miss Elsie Ishburgh of Melrose, and two daughters, Miss Gretchen Peabody, a graduate of Wellesley College, and Miss Mildred Peabody who attends Abbot Academy, Andover. He also leaves a brother, Mr. G. H. Peabody of New York, and a sister, Mrs. George R. Tucker of Newton Highlands.

Services were held at this late residence on Thursday, Rev. Charles H. Cutler of Union Church, Waban, officiating, and the burial was in Woodland Cemetery.

CONCERT OF THE GETHSEMANE COMMANDERY

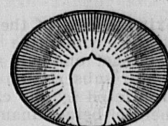

The Gethsemane Commandery No. 35 Knight Templars, gave a most delightful concert last Sunday afternoon at their Asylum, Masonic Hall, Newtonville, for their members and friends.

The Highland Glee Club of Newton rendered a well-selected program assisted by Mrs. Ida B. MacKnight whose contralto solos were much appreciated.

Following the concert, a social hour was enjoyed at which time the ladies under the leadership of Mrs. Fred M. Blanchard served light refreshments.

The entire affair was splendidly handled and the bevy of young women who assisted in pouring and serving added much to the occasion.

Waltham, Watertown, Needham and all parts of Newton were well represented.

PROBATE COURT

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Frederic H. Newton, late of Newton in said County, deceased.

WHEREAS, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by George W. Newton and Harrison G. Burgess who pray that letters testamentary may be issued to them, the executors therein named, without giving a surety on their official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-first day of March, A. D. 1921, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioners are hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, George F. Layton, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twenty-fifth day of February in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one.

NORTHGATE CLUB

Another popular dance will be given at the Club, Friday evening, March 18, this being the second of a series of informal dances planned by the Committee in charge. The evening's music will again be furnished by Walter Johnson's Orchestra.

The Committee consists of Mr. Peter D. Boff, chairman; Mr. Russell Carter and Mr. John Cox.

An informal dance was held at the club house last Friday evening, and while the crowd was not as large as usual it demonstrated the average spirit of the club members.

Later in the month Mr. Peter Boff, will give a dance for the benefit of the Tennis Courts.

On Thursday, March 31st, the Club will hold its annual Easter Ball, this will be an elaborate affair, and one of the most notable dances of the season.

North Gate dances are proving more popular, since the members and their friends realize that they will always have good music to dance to.

THE ROGER WOLCOTT SCHOOL

The eighth grade is once again jubilant over the fact that it has wrested the attendance honors for the past four weeks from the seventh grade. These two grades have held the highest percentage for the entire year.

Several of the teachers and the principal were guests at a dinner in their honor at the home of Mrs. Joseph Congdon, Chairman of the Educational Committee of the Waban Woman's Club.

Work on the new school building is progressing rapidly, but very probably the date of occupancy will not arrive until fall.

—Mlle. Nodelka Simeonova, whose playing at the First Church vesper service last Sunday gave so much pleasure, played on Monday at the monthly meeting of the Baptist Social Union in Ford Hall, and on Thursday afternoon at an invitation recital in the Back Bay.

—The "Pill Bottle," a missionary play given last week in the First Church, under the direction of Miss Priscilla Ordway, was very well acted and gave a very vivid demonstration of the need of active support for missions.

The Newton Centre Band of Mercy, a club of ten girls, is to give two plays at the Newton Centre Play-ground tomorrow afternoon for the benefit of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. The first play is "Tom Sawyer," and the second, "Little Miss Van Klief." The cast of the first play includes Dorothea Tichnor, Helen Titus, Elinor Young, Mildred McKee, Clara Bill, and Elizabeth McKee. The cast of the second play includes Elinor Young, Mildred McKee, Martha Petersen, Constance Hosac, Elizabeth McKee, Clara Bill, and Virginia Beatty.

READ FUND LECTURE

The concluding lecture under the auspices of the Read Fund was held at Hunnewell Club on Monday night, Rev. Joel H. Metcalf, Ph.D., of Harvard University Observatory gave a talk on "Celestial Journeys Through the Telescope," illustrated by the stereopticon.

Mr. Metcalf gave some startling facts in regard to the distance of the earth from the sun, stating that it was 93,000,000 miles away, and that it would take an express train 150 years to reach it.

In regard to light, he said that it would take light eight minutes to reach us from the sun, and eight years to reach us from the nearest star. It would take 100 years for light to reach us from some of the faint, far-away stars.

The lecturer gave an interesting account of the "Milky Way," and explained that it contained 100,000,000 stars, and that our own sun was a part of it.

Jupiter, Saturn, and Mars were also shown, the speaker seeming somewhat in doubt of the existence of the canals of Mars made famous by Professor Percival Lowell.

Many of the famous comets of the world were pictured, and their composition explained.

BOY SCOUTS

The Boy Scout Movement is a movement of prevention. It seeks to so train the boy in self-reliance, manliness, and character, that his life shall progress without the fear of a necessary correction. "Prevention" is far better than "cure." Trained in the essentials of character and citizenship the boy is prepared to meet all the temptations of life, he can face the snares with courage, and be brave in the face of danger. Scouting is a process of making real men out of real boys by a real process which works. It takes a boy at that time of life when he is beset with new and bewildering experiences of adolescence and diverts his thoughts therefrom to wholesome and worthwhile activities. A boy takes up a hobby with the same zeal he plays a game and that hobby may become his trade. In other words a boy transfers his efforts from idle play of harmful mischief to vital achievement. The practice of different handicrafts aids the boy in recognizing his "hobby," helps him to decide his career, and when a boy has learned to think constructively through the agency of play, his problems are greatly simplified and his life is more worth living. The Scout Movement has won the boy and the Boy has made the Scout Movement.

Troop 11, which meets every Friday evening at 7.30 in the Bigelow School is making rapid strides. At the last Parents' Night there were 74 Scouts, candidates, and visitors present. A short contest was held in which Scout Rees won the Friction Fire contest. Knot-tying and signaling were demonstrated. The signal-sending speed was 20 letters per minute for ten minutes, which is above the average. A Court of Honor passed Scouts Heckman, Shanley, McTarnahan, and Clark to the rank of Second Class, and Candidates Barney, Brackett, Pamboukian, Fuller, Olander, Foster, and Turner were accepted as Tenderfoot Scouts.

Troop 5, Newton Centre, shows every sign of developing into a first-class troop with 32 scouts. Great enthusiasm is being shown and Mr. Ston the Scoutmaster is deserving of much praise for the way in which he has enthused the troop.

Two Boy Scout Campaigns will soon be underway. With the Financial, although there has been a wonderful increase in membership since the first of the year there are more boys who would benefit by becoming Scouts. Several Scoutmasters and Assistant Scoutmasters are needed. None but men who love the boy and wish to assist him in his years of adolescence need apply. It is a voluntary service, but a service which has far more recompense than money can pay. If interested write or call upon the Executive, 27 Washington street, Newton Corner. Telephone Newton North 3550.

NEWTON CLUB

The Newton Club held a very successful bridge party on Wednesday. There were eighteen tables. Mrs. William La Monde, Mrs. Arthur Brown, and Mrs. Harry Blanchard, were hostesses. Souvenirs were won by Mrs. C. E. Conant, Mrs. Elizabeth W. Bond,

DEATH OF MRS. COVENEY

Mrs. Mabel A. (Jenkins) Coveney, wife of William T. Coveney of 31 Fisher avenue, Newton Highlands, died last Friday at her home, following illness which had continued through the past six or seven weeks. She was born in Charlestown on Dec. 7, 1875, but her life had been spent elsewhere, as with her parents, the late O. A. and Amanda (Smith) Jenkins, she had lived in Somerville and later in Roxbury where her parents, who were both of Portsmouth, N. H., moved when she was a child of six or seven. The family home was in Dale street. Mr. Jenkins was a Washington street furrier. Their daughter was married in 1905, in Roxbury, to Mr. William T. Coveney, who long has been connected in his business life with Walker Stetson Company, in Boston. As a resident of Newton Highlands, Mrs. Coveney was a member of the Newton Highlands Woman's Club. In addition to her husband, Mrs. Coveney leaves three children, a son, Richard, and two young daughters, Frances and Charlotte Coveney, and she is survived also by a sister, Mrs. Leonard E. Tibbets, of South Bristol, Me., who was formerly Miss Frances C. Jenkins. Services were held on Monday at the Chapel at Newton Cemetery, Rev. George E. Phipps officiating. The burial was in Mt. Auburn.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Teams competing in the Boston Pin Tournament are very evenly matched. Only four points separating the leading and the last team. The members of each team are doing their utmost to stay at the top.

A very interesting bowling match was held at the Waban Club, Waban, Mass., on Saturday, March 5th in which Newton was the victor. Following is the score:

Newton	Waban
Tucker 310	Annabel 311
Cady 327	Bissell 320
Stewart 296	Wiley 297
Stewart 336	Millard 315
Cooper 328	Shiland 280

1597 1522
A return match will be played with the Waban Club on March 19th. On Friday, March 11th, the Y. M. C. A. plays a return match at the Northgate Club.

Mr. Y. C. Yang, a student at Boston University Medical School, gave a very interesting talk before the Fellowship Club last Monday evening. About forty were present. The next meeting of the Club will be on Monday, March 14. Mr. H. P. Patey of Newtonville will be the speaker at the boys' meeting next Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. W. F. Kimball, Mr. R. H. Sanderson, Mrs. Raymond C. Swabing, and Mrs. B. W. Miller. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Harry Blanchard and Mrs. Edwin S. Woodbury.

The prize for the three weeks' competition for the three highest consecutive strings in bowling was won on Thursday evening by Mrs. Charles Hendrick of Newtonville.

On Wednesday, March 16, there will be a formal dance at the Club.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. BURY, Editor.

The New England Home Economics Association is finding a genuine interest among educators not only in extending Home Economics work throughout the schools of the New England states, but also in vitalizing courses already organized. To this end a conference has been arranged for Saturday, March 12, in the East Wing Auditorium of the State House, Boston, to discuss these problems, and the Association is extending the invitation not only to educators, but to any in the communities who may be interested in the subject. At the morning session from 9.45 to 12.30, Payson Smith will discuss "The Place of Home Economics in the general school curriculum;" Mrs. Henrietta Calvin, specialist in Home Economics, Bureau of Education, Washington, "Does Home Economics function as it should for the girl of high school age?" There will be opportunity for the discussion of both addresses. There will be a luncheon at Hotel Brunswick, after which the speakers will be Mrs. Calvin, Miss Agnes H. Craig, supervisor of Home Economics, Springfield, and Miss Mabel C. Bragg, of Newton.

The new employment which the war has placed upon this important subject has set then and women to thinking more and more upon the problems related to it. The opportunity offered by this conference should prove of interest to many, especially among Home Economics committees in the clubs, besides the educators and specialists along this line. The president of the Association is Miss Antoinette Root of Simmons College, who had a prominent part in Food Conservation work during the war.

Education conference, East Wing Auditorium, State House, Boston. Speakers, Dr. Payson Smith, State Commissioner of Education, "The Outlook for Education in Massachusetts;" Ralph Bramhall, "Opportunities for Girls in the Normal Schools of the State;" Miss Mary Robinson, dean of girls in the Bangor High School, will tell of her work. All club women cordially invited to attend.

Bureau of Household Occupations

This Bureau, which was organized last April under the auspices of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, has a long list of available workers of various types and degrees of efficiency ready for service.

Classes for instruction of the workers are to be started shortly. It is expected that certificates of efficiency will be issued to those successfully completing the course, and these workers will be the most desirable. Can the Bureau help you? Telephone Newton North 3480, for assistance or information.

Social Service League

A meeting of the Newton Hospital Social Service League will be held at New Church Parlors, Newtonville, Monday, March 21, at 2.30 P. M. Rev. F. Argento will speak.

Local Announcements

The Monday Club of Newton Highlands will meet with Mrs. George A. Salmon, 999 Walnut street, on March 14th. The subject will be "Norwegian Music," with Mrs. Salmon and Mrs. Hopkins in charge of the program.

On March 14, the Waban Woman's Club will have an illustrated talk on "Bird Life in Science and Song," by Mr. Horace Taylor. There will be a piano solo by Miss Gladys Tucker Joyce.

The next in the series of Round Table Talks upon Home Economics for the Newton Community Club will be held on Monday morning, March 14, at 10.30. Miss Gertrude Herrick, director of health clinics and home nursing for the Red Cross in Newton, will speak on "Food for Convalescents." There will be discussion of suitable food for school lunch boxes. Salads will also be considered. Everybody is invited to attend.

Presidents' Day will be observed by the Newtonville Woman's Club next Tuesday afternoon. Miss Heloise Hersey will speak on "The Modern Novel and Its Relation to the Modern Woman." Miss Halsey, who is well known as a public lecturer on English literature, always brings to her subject something more than mere facts, and illumines it with the fervor and warmth of her own strong personality. There will be music arranged by Mrs. L. G. Roberts, and a tea.

The Woman's Club of Newton Highlands will meet on Tuesday, March 15th, at 2.30 P. M. in the Congregational church. Mrs. W. C. Crawford will give a talk upon Current Events.

The Screen Play, our youngest art, using as its medium light in combination with the mind of man, is demanding the attention of all thinking people. Whether one considers the "movie" from the standpoint of the legislator, or of the artist, its influence on present day conditions cannot be overlooked.

At the next meeting of the Auburndale Woman's Club, Miss Amy Sacker, during the war art director in the motion-picture studios of California, will tell of her personal experience in movie production. She will explain some of the factors which control the character of the plays, and tell how they may be made better.

This meeting will be held on March 15, in the Congregational Chapel. There will be music.

Dr. A. Warren Stearns, director of the Massachusetts Mental Hygiene Association, will address the Newton Social Science Club Wednesday morning on "Mental Hygiene in Industry." Guests may be invited at 10.30.

March 17th, Prof. Albert P. Morse of Wellesley College will address the Nature Study class of the Newton Centre Woman's Club on "Bird Migration."

The next meeting of the Newton Ladies' Home Circle will be held on March 17 in G. A. R. Hall at 2 P. M.

The Newton Highlands Shakespeare Club will meet on Saturday, March 19, with Mrs. Harry N. Milliken, 114 Penway, Boston, instead of with Mrs. W. E. Moore, as announced in the calendar.

Local Happenings

Miss Mabel Hill, of Dana Hall, Wellesley, gave a helpful, practical and inspiring talk before the Woman's Club of Newton Upper Falls, on Monday evening, in the Auditorium, which was very much enjoyed. Her subject was, "Woman's Service to the Community," and was presented from the economic, social, moral and spiritual side.

Rev. Brewer Eddy gave a most interesting address Monday afternoon before the Newton Mothers' Club, in which he dwelt upon many of the national questions now perplexing the world. He spoke particularly upon China. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Leon B. Rogers of Lenox street, and assisting Mrs. Rogers as hostesses were Mrs. Joseph Eddy and Mrs. S. S. Tower. A very large number of members and their guests were present.

The meeting of the Auburndale Review Club on Tuesday morning was held with the president, Mrs. F. F. Davidson. Noted American Women was the general subject. Miss Margaret Haskell considered Society Women, Mrs. J. P. Rider, those in Education, her paper being read by her sister, Miss Ellen Williams. Mrs. Richard O. Walter presented a delightful paper on those in the welfare work. Mrs. Nelson Freeman played two selections.

Wednesday morning at the meeting of the Newton Social Science Club there was another of the home papers, this time on Modern Drama, by Mrs. Frederick J. Fawcett. Her paper opened with a brief sketch of Charles Rann Kennedy, author of "The Servant in the House." A number of his plays were outlined and commented upon. She then turned to a presentation of the work of William Vaughn Moody, which was made doubly interesting from the fact that the playwright was Mrs. Fawcett's own brother. She dwelt particularly upon his two best known plays, "The Great Divide" and "The Faith Healer," telling how Mr. Moody had planned the former when spending a winter in Arizona. She described the first night when it was put on in New York. Henry Miller and Margaret Anglin, taking the leading roles, extracts from both plays were read. So much interest was aroused, and owing to the fact that time did not permit of her reading the portion of her paper relating to Clyde Fitch, she was requested to bring that and also to read from her brother's poetry at a subsequent meeting.

NEWTON ITALIAN WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED

A meeting was held at the West Newton Neighborhood House, 89 Elm street, West Newton, Sunday, March 6. Twenty-two Italian women met and organized a club, the name to be "The West Newton Italian Women's Association." The speakers were Mr. F. Argento, Mr. F. Barbo, Mr. A. Caruso.

Officers elected: President, Mrs. F. Argento; vice-president, Mrs. A. Caruso; recording secretary, Mrs. S. Aceto; financial secretary, Mrs. F. Carvelli; treasurer, Mrs. J. Binaighi. Ten other women were elected for minor offices.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served.

The first regular meeting of the club is to be held March 18, when further business and plans for the club will be discussed.

NEIGHBORHOOD MEETING

Channing Alliance held a most interesting meeting on Tuesday afternoon, which was attended by a large number of women from the local churches as well as by delegates from neighboring Alliance branches. "Making a Neighborhood out of a Community" was the significant subject which brought so large an audience, and as presented by Mrs. Allen Chamberlain, of Boston, proved a most fascinating one. To bring about this end, Mrs. Chamberlain said that it is necessary to make each unit in the community "neighbor-minded." The war started us in this direction. The best example of neighbor-mindedness, Mrs. Chamberlain found in the Pilgrims, yet we should remember that not all the number possessed that quality.

In our flocking to the cities, we have lost the dependence upon neighbors which we had in the smaller rural communities, and this has been a great moral catastrophe. The most important need for this neighbor-mindedness is toward those of foreign birth who have come in such numbers during the last recent years. She said that the most fascinating thing she ever did was when she made her first contact with the foreign-born. When you come to know them the fundamentals are the same, it is only the superficial things that are different. She told of many interesting things regarding her personal work among them, and of the attempts to bring about better relations and more neighborliness in different communities through surveys which she has made. In a survey in East Boston, the dirtiest woman she found was one of old American descent. The thing to be done is to get the people out of the slums who don't belong in the slums. That address was listened to with close attention and brought forth considerable discussion.

The Alliance choir sang two selections, which added to the pleasure of the afternoon. At the close a social hour with tea was enjoyed. Miss Jessie Fisher and Mrs. Arthur Wilson presided over the tea table.

UNITARIAN CLUB

At a meeting of the Unitarian Club at Channing Church last Friday evening, Rev. John B. W. Day, Secretary for Japan of the American Unitarian Association, was the speaker. Mr. Day is the successor of Dr. Clay MacCauley, who has for many years represented the Unitarian work in that country.

Mr. Day's subject was "Unitarian Work in Japan." He spoke of the rather remarkable circumstances that led to the beginning of the Unitarian Mission there, which was by invitation of the Japanese government. It had been officially decided after careful consideration that the Unitarian was the form of Christianity peculiarly suited to the Japanese mind and needs. A commission was delegated to visit the American Unitarian Association with the request that such a mission be sent. The Secretary's headquarters is located in Tokyo. The work is very largely with students and professors of the universities. Its method is that of an influence and counsel rather than an organization of numbers. Its activities are turned over to Japanese workers as soon as they are prepared, in accordance with their national spirit.

—The Junior League Fair and entertainment will be given next Tuesday, March 15th, in the vestry of the Methodist Church. At four and again at eight the children will give the play entitled "The Enterprise of the Mayflower." Articles, such as cake, candy, fancy aprons and groceries, will be sold.

Upper Falls

—The Mothers' Meeting was held at the Twombly House last Wednesday afternoon, and an interesting program was enjoyed. Miss Mercer of Newton Highlands played several charming solos on the violin, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Mercer, on the piano. The mothers were all pleased to welcome back into their midst Mrs. White, who has for the past few weeks been ill at the hospital.
—The Hashatawaga Camp Fire Girls, accompanied by their Guardian, Miss Ruth Marshall, entertained the ladies of the Stone Institute last Saturday. A small play that illustrated their Camp Fire accomplishments created a good deal of interest, as did their explanation as to how they won their Honor Beads. The ladies especially enjoyed the singing of several Indian songs, which followed the play.

PART PLAYED BY THE SCHOOLS OF NEWTON IN THE CHINESE FAMINE DRIVE

The schools of Newton have made a great record for the China Famine Fund and the interest still continues. Rolls of bills, boxes of coin and many checks have been flowing into the school headquarters and the Newton Trust Co. This bank kindly took charge of the collections and sent their check to the order of Kidder, Peabody & Co., who are the treasurers for this fund in Massachusetts.

Principals of the grade schools have said that the pupils covered their neighborhoods like good salesmen, placing the stamps and Hunger Posters in many homes. Young people are kindhearted when the appeal is for starving children in other lands and they make persistent solicitors for this intense need in China. Last week the high schools got busy and the dollar gifts came in a flood. The girls of the Vocational High held a sale of paper roses and disposed of all they had made in less than twenty minutes. It would be expected that the Classical High with its large numbers would win the laurels for the highest figure and they certainly rolled up a big score with over $403 turned in at their first report, with one room of the Freshman Class leading.

The grades did equally well and if the age of the workers is taken into account a judge would give the blue ribbon to some of these rooms of younger children who sold stamps and broke open their little banks to swell the fund. One room in the Clafin School takes the prize to date with a total of $103.11 from 29 pupils. A few of the girls in this 6th grade scoured their neighborhoods and did all kinds of work to earn their money. The Clafin School as a whole turned in $281.90, the largest amount from any one of the grades, due to the zeal of their winning room in large measure. Roger Wolcott School is in line for the best record considering the smaller number of pupils, for their $222 came from no more than 300 pupils.

Every school did well and deserves honorable mention. The people of Newton know that their children are being made into good citizens and such a wholesome expression of generosity as this has been is a strong aid in that direction.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Blake more entertained Attorney General and Mrs. J. Weston Allen at Mr. Blakemore's summer home at Andover, New Hampshire, over the week end.
—Miss Eliza H. Kendrick, Professor of Bible at Wellesley College, took part in "The Nice Woman," a Tudor "Morality Play," given at Wellesley College last Saturday afternoon in aid of the College Endowment Fund.

—A conference of Boys' Secretaries was held in Y. M. C. A. Hall on Monday evening. After different phases of boys' work had been discussed, the meeting adjourned to the Public Library, where Mr. Harold T. Dougherty gave a talk on "How to Interest Boys in Good Books."

—At Eliot Church Sunday morning the fifth sermon in the series on Elijah's Message to Our Modern World. Mendelssohn's "Elijah" music will be sung as follows: Tenor Recitative, "See He Sleepeth," Women's Trio, "Lift Thine Eyes," Chorus, "He Watching Over Israel."

—At the Lenten Institute in Eliot Church tonight the program will be: Young People's Hour at 5:30 with stereopticon talk on "Those Who Furnish Our Daily Bread"; Supper at 6:15; Assembly at 7:00 addressed by Mr. Park of West Newton; Classes at 7:45; Dr. Patton, "The World's Crossroads"; Dr. Holt, "The Church and the Community Housing"; Mr. Clark, "Christianity's Claim to Universality"; Prof. Kendrick, "The Earliest Church: The Source of Its Joy—Consciousness of Power."—Acts 4; 8:45 Family Prayers.

The appeal for the Famine Fund will not be pressed in the schools after this week but friends who wish to send in gifts may be reminded that the Headquarters are at 4 Arlington street, Boston, and that checks to Kidder, Peabody & Co. will always be accepted.

"THE LATE MR. KIDD"

On March 28 in Players' Hall, West Newton, the Pi Eta Society will present their 53rd annual play, "The Late Mr. Kidd," a musical comedy in three acts by W. Barton Leach, Jr., of Brookline. The show is being managed by W. V. M. Fawcett, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Fawcett of Hyde Avenue, Newton. It will be remembered by the friends of the Pi Eta Society that Mr. Fawcett was in charge of last year's oriental success, "Al Fareedah," which Newton boys connected with the play are Bradford D. Williams, Wilson Palmer, ranked as one of the female beauties of the show; W. Joslyn Young, a lively member of the pony ballet, and Philip Chalmers, who takes the part of the terrible Rajah.

Dr. John C. Ferguson Tells of America's Duty in Lecture at Eliot Church

A very inspiring and interesting address was given by Dr. John C. Ferguson of Newton before the joint meeting of the Eliot Men's Club and the Women's Association on Wednesday evening at Eliot Church, Newton. Dr. Ferguson took for his subject, "Present Day Foreign Relations." He said in part:

We, in America, seem to have forgotten that there has been in our own time one of the greatest wars in history. In other parts of the world, men are still talking and thinking of the war, but, in this country, it is almost as if the war had not been. This shows in us an astonishing ability to adapt ourselves to present conditions, but, on the other hand, we seem to have forgotten the high ideals and purposes which actuated us during the war.

There is one thing which is worse than war, dreadful as that is, and that is the deadening of ideals, the living for one's self alone. We sometimes forget that the Christian religion is a militant one, that it stands for the maintenance of those things which are worth while even at great cost and sacrifice.

Europe, Asia and Africa are in a state of chaos. This chaos of the world has no relation to the League of Nations. Its causes have grown out of the condition of the people themselves. Neither the Peace of Versailles nor the League of Nations has attacked the real problems of Europe such as the Russian situation.

An association or league of nations can only be built up when the members of it represent the same ideals and purposes. There is no royal road to peace. It can only be brought about through the lifting up of the individual. You cannot compel people to be good by law. Law is dependent for its effectiveness upon the ideals of a people. The results of the 18th amendment in this country are an illustration of this.

The League of Nations is not practicable, nor is it desirable for America, for it would drag us down to the ideals of other nations. Our ideals are higher than those of other nations. We have the best form of government, and the best chance of working out something of value to the world.

Other nations are not at peace because they have had aggressive policies. This has never been America's ideal. We want to be able to carry out our own ideals.

Every thing that has been accomplished in Europe has been done through the Supreme Council of the five great nations. This is a military (Continued on Page Four)

PALESTINE CHAPTER O. E. S.

Hold Successful Whist and Serve Luncheon to More Than 100

The Palestine Chapter of the Eastern Star held a luncheon and whist on Tuesday at Temple Hall, Newtonville. About 120 were present. The hall was beautifully decorated in yellow and blue.

The hostesses included the following: Mrs. Genevieve Crawford, general chairman; Mrs. Isabelle Wilson, Mrs. Alice McLean, Mrs. Grace Twigg, Mrs. Eunice McGill, Mrs. Edward Cummings, Mrs. Jessie Hudson, Mrs. Mabel Allen, Mrs. Beatrice Jerauld, Mrs. Mabel Wood, Mrs. Lillian Leonard, Mrs. Ida Lockwood, Mrs. Estelle Crawford.

The chairman in charge of the bridge whist was Mrs. Charlotte Mansfield and of the plain whist Mrs. Mabel Allen. Twelve beautiful prizes were won during the afternoon.

In charge of the kitchen was Mrs. Florence Chase and of the waitresses Mrs. Charlotte Mansfield, while Miss Jane Williams had charge of the decorations. The table decorations were particularly attractive, consisting of blue and yellow individual nut baskets, dollies of blue and yellow, candles of the same colors, while in the center was a beautiful bouquet of jonquils and pussywillows.

BOY SCOUTS

Campaign to Raise Sum of $5,000 to Begin March 18th

The great advance made by the Boy Scout movement during the last few months is very gratifying and assuring. One troop organized the first of the year has grown by leaps and bounds until today it is a full troop with many candidates. Other troops, such as Troop 11, Newton; Troop 7, West Newton; Troop 5, Newton Centre, have made rapid progress, and candidates clamor to become scouts. It is estimated that by the last day in June there will be over 500 Scouts under the Norumbega Council of Newton.

New troops have been organized. Notantum with its varied nationalities has taken hold. The boys are enthusiastic. They realize the importance of scout training in the out of doors, and the benefit of its program. Thompsonville has taken hold. Here again the boys are enthusiastic. Newton Upper Falls has been entered. Scout troops will be organized there. West Newton is ready for more troops. Auburndale will organize another. In other words, the scout movement in Newton is a growing prospect. (Continued on Page Four)

GIVES UP DEAN'S WORK

Dr. Charles F. Painter Resigns Office at Tufts Medical School

The growing pressure of his private practice has forced Dr. Charles F. Painter of 78 Farlow road, Newton, to resign as dean of the Tufts Medical School, an office he has held since September, 1913.

Dr. Painter, however, will continue as a member of the faculty, retaining his title of professor of orthopedic surgery. For the past two years he has been desirous of giving up the administrative work demanded of the dean and had kept an office only at the request of President Consens of the college. His successor as dean has not yet been named.

Y. W. C. A. CAMPAIGN

If ever the Y. W. C. A. needed the support of thinking, public spirited people it is now. Now when our girls are needing something, wholesome to think about to know and some place to go.

The Y. W. C. A. is providing these very things to one thousand girls who visit the Blue Triangle Recreation Centre every week.

There were over seven thousand girls accommodated in the Y. W. homes last year; there were nearly two thousand girls in educational classes last year; there were Student Associations in ten schools and colleges.

These things are worth while. They must go on.

Miss M. Louise Walworth of Centre street, Newton Centre, is chairman for the city of Newton. The local chairmen are as follows: Auburndale, Miss Marion Knowlton; Newton, Miss Helen Hull; Newton Centre, Miss M. Louise Walworth; Newton Highlands, Mrs. Sanford E. Thompson; Newtonville, Mrs. Pitt F. Drew; Waban, Miss Jesse Gould; West Newton, Mrs. Herbert M. Cole.

AUBURNDALE PARISH HONORS PASTOR

Rev. George S. Butters Given Purse at Reception in Recognition of His Services

Few people are ever praised while living as were Dr. and Mrs. George S. Butters on Friday evening, March 11. Fewer deserve such praise and fewer still could endure the many words of commendation spoken of and to these much loved people.

Dr. Butters for the past nine years has been the pastor of Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church of Auburndale, and at the next session of the New England Conference, beginning March 30th in Trinity Church, Springfield, will retire from the active ministry as a pastor.

Dr. Butters began preaching in 1881, his first charge being in Barre, Massachusetts. Since that time he has served churches in Jamaica Plain, Newtonville, Fitchburg, Somerville, Brookline, Newton and Auburndale; one-half of that time being spent in the Garden City at three churches.

Friday evening, March 11th, the official board of Centenary Church tendered Dr. and Mrs. Butters a reception at the church. Bishop and Mrs. Edwin Holt Hughes, Bishop of the New England Area; District Superintendent and Mrs. Joseph M. Shepherd, assisted Dr. and Mrs. Butters in receiving. Those receiving were entertained previously at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac S. Dillingham.

Refreshments were served in the beautifully decorated parish house by members of the Ladies' Aid Society in charge of a committee composed of Mrs. E. C. Hilliard, Mrs. M. C. Hutchins and Miss Eva Morse. The ushering was in charge of Miss L. R. Potter. Mr. William S. Wagner was the general chairman.

Dr. George A. Bates, the master of ceremonies, introduced as the first speaker Mayor Edwin O. Childs, who was at his best on this occasion. He told of the personal influence Dr. Butters had been in his life. Dr. Butters having known Mayor Childs as a boy in Newtonville. The Mayor called Dr. Butters the "First Citizen," for he believed Dr. Butters to have had influence for good on more lives than any other citizen of Newton.

Dr. E. P. Drew of the Congregational Church of Auburndale said he never thought of Dr. Butters as a Methodist pastor, but as a community pastor, drawing no denominational lines.

Rev. P. M. Wood, rector of the Episcopal Church, emphasized the close fellowship of the three Auburndale churches.

Dr. Joseph M. Shepherd, District Superintendent for Boston District, was the next speaker. He said he had known Dr. Butters since he (Dr. Shepherd) was a student in the theological (Continued on Page 4)

"He Was My Dearest Friend" and I know that in appointing me his executor and trustee he thought he was showing how dearly he cherished my friendship.

"If he but knew the burden he imposed!"

"My own and my family's affairs taxed me heavily enough, and to these were added the responsibility of caring for his."

"Every day I feel more keenly how unequal I am to the task."

SCHOOL NOTES

Classical High School

Last Friday evening at Somerville the girls' debating team defeated their opponents, Somerville, and on the same night here at Newton, Brookline was also defeated. As a reward for their victories Newton has been presented with a cup. The subject of the debate was: "Resolved, that the U. S. should give the soldiers a bonus of $500 or its equivalent." At Somerville, Newton had the affirmative and at home it had the negative. Over 600 were present at the debate held in the hall of this school.

Of the five plays submitted for presentation by the senior class, that of Priscilla Aurelio has been considered the best. However, as this play is very short, plans are being made to present another short play written by one of last year's graduates. The senior class has nominated the following for class day officers: As orator, Roger Cummings, Hughes Wagner, Arthur Smith and Clark Hodder; as class historian, Priscilla Aurelio; Sylvia Chapman, Catharine Jones, Helen Booth and Florence Morford. The names of those elected will be printed next week.

There will be a freshman dance in the gymnasium this afternoon. Track letters and sweaters have been awarded to the following: Capt. Thomas Clausen, Robert Garrity, Frederick Blodgett, Don Cunningsham, Ralph Thompson, Alfred Richards, Clarence McDavitt, Francis Hurley, Alfred Stafford, Swartz, McQuiston, Richards, Ryall, and Manager Ball. This makes "Jake" Stafford a three letter man.

The hockey team has elected Prescott Drowne as captain for next year. Cedric Valentine was appointed manager to succeed Lawrence Leonard, who was awarded a letter and letter along with Capt. Clark Hodder, George Macomber, Clement Coady, Alan Dunlop, Gordon Harris, Prescott Drowne, Alfred Stimet and Richard Corcoran. Friday is the last day for the payment of the "Newtonian" subscriptions.

Roger Wolcott School

Malcolm Hill was decisively elected captain of the school nine for the season which has just begun and his running mate, Henry Johnson, was easily the popular choice for manager. There were twenty-four boys out for the first team at the practise held Tuesday afternoon.

C. Hassler Capron, director of the Waban playground and a hearty friend to all the boys and girls of the school, Friday afternoon presented to the principal, Harlan D. Crowell, and the class of 1921, a most beautiful picture of Abraham Lincoln. It came as a complete surprise to the entire class. The Waban troop of Girl Scouts was present and furnished a most picturesque background for the whole affair.

The Rev. Dr. Cutter of the Union Church led the school in a prayer to the "Country of which Lincoln was the Preserver." Mr. Capron read several of the great leader's well known utterances and Mr. Crowell accepted the picture, which will be hung in the new building, on behalf of the teachers and children of the school.

Hyde School

The eighth grades held their class election on Tuesday morning and following were elected: President, Junior Tewksbury; Secretary of State, Mildred MacDonald; Secretary of Interior, Charles Timbie; Assistant, Madeline Powell; Secretary of Agriculture, Joseph Lane; Secretary of Education, Marjorie Williams; Secretary of English, Helen Bicknell; Secretary of Geography, Sam Pattee; Secretary of History, Harold Carver; Secretary of Reading, Elizabeth Savage.

The fourth grades gave a musicale in the hall last Friday afternoon. A very entertaining program was rendered, consisting of violin, cello, drum and piano solos by the music pupils in these grades. This took the place of their regular Friday afternoon Victrola concert.

We are very glad to know that Miss Marion Little, one of our first grade teachers, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Newton Hospital, is recovering rapidly.

The Sixth Grade Concentration Club has admitted several new members during the past week. They are: Clara Dillaway, David Thompson, Doris Smith, Alice Sullivan, Richard True and Margaret Galvin.

The attendance record in Miss Perkins' room, second grade, shows that the following have been neither absent nor tardy this school year: Wendell Card, Warren Colby, Margaret and William McKenna.

Mrs. J. L. Marcy of Newton Upper Falls is supplying in Miss Little's room during the latter's absence.

Miss Gertrude Schwartz from the Framingham Normal is assisting in the lower grades at present.

Ralph Waldo Emerson School

Miss Frappier and two associate teachers from the Lowell Normal Training School were visitors on Wednesday. Miss Frappier was formerly a teacher at the Emerson in Grade three.

Our school hall is being retitled. Workmen began on this much needed improvement on Wednesday.

The birthday celebration of Kenneth Johnson, Grade one, was a happy occasion one day last week. Ice cream and cake for the entire class were provided.

The recent drive for the Chinese Famine Fund netted $46.60 from the entire school.

Mason School

Saturday, March 5, fifty-seven of the History class in the Eighth grade and five of the teachers went in to see "Abraham Lincoln" at the Hollis Theatre. Happily we were able some time ago to arrange for seats in the second balcony, so that the group could be together and this, together with the fact that the play fitted right into the history period which the class is now studying, made the trip all the more pleasant.

On last week Tuesday, some twenty Seventh and Eighth grade boys visited the United States Arsenal at Watertown with Mr. Brainerd. Major Carney provided a guide, who took the fellows through the main buildings and explained all that there was to see. Unfortunately the Arsenal is not busy at the present time, and in some of the shops there was not a machine turning. Nevertheless the crowd saw one of the great 16-inch guns and the preparation of the carriage for it, the great 150 ton crane, and a number of other interesting things.

The Eighth grade class meeting was held Friday, March 4, and the principle feature of the entertainment was a talk on Wireless by Vincent Roberts, who had his instruments set up to illustrate things as he explained them.

Through the kindness of the Y. M. C. A. the boys of the Seventh and Eighth grades had a swimming meet Friday evening, Mar. 4, in the Association's tank. The teams were picked up and a program of races, diving, and plunging for distance was run off. Philip Rising's team defeated Carlton McCullough's by a narrow margin of three points.

The children of Room 5 are studying Holland. A very interesting sand table picturing a canal and a house is being made.

Clafin School

The drive for the Chinese Famine Fund is closed. In the amount of contributions, Clafin School is first among the Grammar Schools of the city, and second only to the Classical High School. One room in the Clafin School led all other rooms in the city in the amount contributed, having a total contribution of $106.

The district total from the Horace Mann District was $428.30, which was the highest amount turned into the fund by any one district in the city.

The attendance reports for the last four weeks, show the Eighth Grade leading with a percentage of 98.2, while Grade Four is the only room which has no tardy marks.

The pupils of Grades Seven and Eight are planning a theatre party to see "Abraham Lincoln" at the Hollis.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Virginia Remington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Remington of Newtonville, celebrated her 11th birthday on Saturday afternoon, March 12, at her home on Washington Park. A merry company of girls were delightfully entertained with instrumental music, games and dancing. A piano solo was played beautifully by Miss Marjorie Hall of Lincoln.

Later a collation was served in the dining room, the table being decorated with pink and blue. A birthday cake, surrounded with 11 candles, was in the centre of the table, and the favors were baskets with candy.

The little hostess was showered with gifts, flowers, plants and congratulations, and for her as well as her friends the occasion was a most happy one.

Nature

Have you read "Turtle eggs for Agassiz," M-S53 f, by Dallas Lore Sharp? At this time of the year nature subjects are especially interesting. From now on there will be added possibly each week a flower, a bird, an insect, and the summertime is here in the full, and the delightful noises in the marshes are with us once more. Many of us like to renew these old acquaintances even before they come by reading about them and their ways. The following is a list of some of the more recent books on nature topics, many of which will prove to be of great interest.

MARCH BIRDS ABOUT NEWTON

The birds to be seen during March in Newton fall into four groups:

Permanent Residents.—Birds which may be found about here at all times of year. Chief among these are the following: Crow, Blue Jay, Flicker, (the big brown Woodpecker, who spends much of his time on the ground probing for ants), Downy Woodpecker (the small black and white Woodpecker, often wrongly called "Red-headed Woodpecker," because of the red patch on the head of the male bird), White-breasted Nuthatch, Chickadee, Screech Owl (one has been seen for several years on Church street, near Maple avenue, in the twilight. This bird keeps in check both mice and English Sparrows), Sharp-shinned (?) Hawk (a small Hawk, probably the Sharp-shinned, has been seen frequently in the game region as the Screech Owl), European Starling (an introduced bird, not to be encouraged. Looks like a Bob-tailed Blackbird, but has a yellow bill), American Goldfinch, Cedarbird or Cedar Waxwing.

Winter Visitors.—Birds which nest to the north of us, but come at least as far south as Newton for the winter. Many do not leave for the north until late April or well into May. These are the Tree Sparrow (gone about April 20), Junco (gone about April 20), Golden-crowned Kinglet (gone by April 25), Brown Creeper (gone by May), White-throated Sparrow or "Peabody Bird," now singing on Church street, gone by May 15. This bird is rare in winter; more common as transient visitor.

Transient Visitors.—Birds which stop in Newton on the way from their more southern "winter resorts" to their nesting grounds farther north are the Fox Sparrow (here from March 15—April 20. A bird worth seeing and hearing. Found near Hemlock Gorge, Newton Upper Falls, Rusty Blackbird (March 5 to May 8. In older thickets and swampy places), Ducks (on Charles River, between Upper and lower Falls). The most familiar are the Black Duck, Mallard, American Merganser, Red-breasted Merganser, Scaup Duck.

Summer Residents.—Birds returning to this region to nest after wintering farther south are the Robin (a few winter here), Bluebird, Bronzed Grackle or Crow Blackbird, Red-winged Blackbird, Meadowlark, Cowbird, Song Sparrow (a few winter here), Phoebe.

The rarer or more irregular birds and puzzling birds, like the Hawks, have been purposely omitted, as this list is intended to be a guide to beginners. And March is a glorious month for beginners!

The following books are excellent helps to bird-study: "Guide to Birds of New England and Eastern New York" by Ralph Hoffmann. This gives both land and water birds. "Birds of Village and Field," by Florence Merriam Bailey. "Travels of Birds," by Frank Chapman. Chester Reed's Pocket Guides, especially "Land Birds" and "Water Birds."

Margaret Tucker.

"HOW TO TEACH CHILDREN TO SING"

A talk on "How to teach children to sing" will be given next Tuesday, March 22, at the Newtonville M. E. Church, at 8 P. M. This subject is to be presented by Rev. Earl E. Harper, who is assistant pastor and director of musical worship at the Immanuel Church of Waltham.

The meeting is open to all interested. It is intended primarily for the song leaders and music directors of the various Sunday schools of the Norumbega District Sunday School Association, and is a preparatory step for the Musical Festival of Memorial Hymns, which is to come on May 15 at Eliot Church, Newton.

Hymn leaflets, entitled "Making Friends with Great Hymns," are being distributed by the Norumbega District Association. These leaflets include the hymns to be memorized for the coming festival, and also give interesting incidents to be associated with the hymns and to help in the appreciation of the words.

The list of hymns announced for this festival is as follows: "O God, Beneath Thy Guiding Hand"; "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus"; "O, Master, Let Me Walk with Thee"; "O, Beautiful for Spacious Skies"; "Fling Out the Banner"; "Nearer, My God, to Thee"; "My Faith Looks Up to Thee"; "Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult, and 'How Firm a Foundation.'"

BAILEY-HOSMER

A very attractive wedding took place last Friday afternoon, when Miss Barbara E. Hosmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hammond Hosmer of Oxford road, Newton Centre, was married to Mr. Philip Adrian Bailey of Middletown, Conn. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward T. Sullivan of Trinity Church.

The bride wore a gown of changeable violet and gold taffeta silk, with a poke bonnet trimmed with violets, and carried a bouquet of violets and orange blossoms. The maid of honor, Miss Marian Peabody of West Medford, Mass., wore a gown of blue taffeta trimmed with scrolls of pale pink, a hat to match, and carried pink Killarney roses.

The best man was Mr. William Waldo Miller of Middletown, Conn., and the ushers were Messrs. Floyd Ramsdell of Worcester, Judson Buell of Allston, Ralph S. Miller of Middletown, Conn., and Calvin Hosmer, Jr., of Sharon, Mass.

A reception at the home of the bride, which was beautifully decorated with daffodils and violets, followed the ceremony at the church, the parents of the bride and groom and the maid of honor assisting.

After a wedding trip to New York and Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey will make their home in New York City.

Mrs. Bailey is widely known in musical circles, being a pupil of Miss Dai Buell. There were many guests present from Worcester, Middletown, Providence, Bristol, Conn., and Ludlow, Vt., as well as from Newton.

NEWTON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION

Lieut. Gov. Alvan T. Fuller addressed the conference of New England Baptist ministers at the Newton Theological Institution on Monday night. Mr. Fuller spoke briefly, bringing the greetings of the Commonwealth and expressing his opinion of the importance of the conference.

Other speakers were Dr. George Hoar, president of the seminary; Prof. Richard M. Vaughan and Pres. Clayton D. Gray of Bates College. There was a reception at the home of Dr. Hoar late in the afternoon.

The conference, attended by many ministers from all the New England States, ended Wednesday.

HEARING

To the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Newton:
Respectfully represents the Boston and Worcester Street Railway Company that:

1. It is a street railway corporation, duly established and existing under the general laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, having its tracks duly located and in operation in the City of Newton and elsewhere in said Commonwealth.

2. Public convenience and necessity require that a cross-over between the eastbound and westbound tracks be located at a point about one hundred feet (100') east of Woodward Street crossing as shown on the enclosed blue print; also, relocation of tracks shown on the enclosed blue print just west of the Newton-Brookline Line.

WHEREFORE your petitioner, said Boston and Worcester Street Railway Company, prays that your Board will issue an order granting to said company a location for said location and relocation.

Dated this twenty-third day of February, 1921.
BOSTON & WORCESTER STREET RAILWAY COMPANY,
By (Signed) Geo. H. McFee, Gen'l Superintendent.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

March 7, 1921.
Upon the foregoing petition it is ordered by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Newton that a hearing be had thereon on Monday, the 4th day of April, 1921, at 7.45 o'clock P. M., before said Board in the City Hall, in that part of said Newton called West Newton, and that notice of the time and place of such hearing be given by publication of the foregoing petition and this order thereof fourteen days at least before the day of said hearing in the following newspaper published in said City of Newton: Newton Graphic.

By order of the Board,
FRANK M. GRANT, Clerk.

"GOD NOT TO BLAME BECAUSE LIFE IS UNFAIR"

"God is not to blame because life is unfair," declares Rev. J. Edgar Park, at the Second Church, at a recent Sunday evening meeting. This, in brief, was his answer to the child's question, "Life isn't fair, is it?" He preached to an overcrowded church at this fourth meeting of popular Sunday evening services held during Lent.

At the very outset Mr. Park answered quite contrary to the nineteenth century idea by frankly admitting: "No, life is not fair." He had no sympathy whatever with the ideas of a generation ago which held that whatever our lot we should make the best of it.

"Who is to blame," asked Mr. Park. "I am more interested in that side of the question than in the question as to whether life is or is not fair. In my boyhood, I was taught to be content with my class and position in life. The girl for years a patient, public-pleasing clerk in a large, poorly ventilated department store and the twelve year old boy assigned thus young to personality killing tasks in the coal mine were told that it was God's will and they must face these conditions calmly and joyfully."

"Why is it God is blamed? It isn't God's fault that things are wrong. It seems difficult in some cases to draw this conclusion, but it is true nevertheless. At birth one child is born feeble-minded and another a genius, one physically strong, another weak, one with a tendency to do some wrong, another morally straight—ah, you say, surely this isn't fair! But even in all these cases the cause is not traceable to God, but to the thoughtlessness and ignorance of some one of the child's ancestors."

"Environment plays its great part in making life what it is. The success of Henry Ford is not due to his birth, but to what has happened since his birth. It was his determination in the little bicycle shop where he worked to be somebody, to do something which made him what he is today. Yet we cannot but admit that whether one is born into wealth or poverty makes a tremendous difference in life."

"There is enough wealth to go around if people will stop hoarding it all. Just as it was possible in the feeding of the five thousand to feed all and have much to spare. There are two methods to bring about more just and fairer conditions: One is by charity and the other by reorganization. The first method is most practised, more easy, but never ended; the second is Christian, fair, practical and sensible."

"The next generation must solve the problem of combining the two dominant desires of all people to get and to serve. Then all purely selfish ownership of capital or skill that does not take into account the public value will end. Until such a combination of selfish and public desires is realized, it is true now that God has wonderful compensations for all who have the character and resolve to be successful and happy."

Miss Eleanor Lentz played several selections on the 'cello which were splendidly rendered. Mrs. George Owen acted as accompanist at the piano and William Lester Bates at the organ.

REV. GEORGE LAWRENCE PARKER ACCEPTS CALL TO UNITARIAN CHURCH, NEWTON CENTRE

On Sunday, March 13th, the Unitarian Church of Newton Centre, at its morning service received a letter from Rev. George Lawrence Parker, accepting the call to be the minister of this church, which was extended to him a few weeks ago.

Mr. Parker was pastor of the Crombie Street Church in Salem from 1908 to 1912, and from 1912 to 1918 pastor of the Broadway Congregational Church in Somerville, where he assisted in consummating a union of that church with the Winter Hill Church.

For the last three years he has been constantly engaged on the lecture platform before Chautauqua, Lyceum, commercial and college audiences, traveling throughout New England and the states east of the Mississippi. He has been a frequent contributor to the Congregationalist, the Boston Transcript's Churchman Afield column, the Homiletic Review of New York, St. Nicholas and other magazines.

His pastorate of the American Church in Petrograd, Russia, from 1905 to 1908 has made his lecture on Russian conditions one of great interest and much in demand. He is a graduate of Yale University. His thought and preaching have been of the broad and liberal type.

Mr. Parker expects to begin his ministry in the Newton Centre Church on April 17th, spending the intervening time at his home at East Falmouth on Cape Cod.

CONCERT OF THE ORCHESTRA OF THE FIRST CHURCH IN NEWTON

Last week Thursday evening a large and appreciative audience filled the auditorium of the Congregational Church, Newton Centre, to listen to the symphony concert, given under the auspices of the Men's Club by this orchestra of amateur players. The programme included an overture from "William Tell," selections from Grieg and Wagner, and a Beethoven Symphony, a cello solo by Servalais and a group of charming songs. The response to the efforts of the orchestra and to the work of the soloists was very spontaneous, and surely the performers can feel very pleased at the reception they received.

Mrs. Walker of Newtonville rendered her cello solo with remarkable skill and understanding. The community is certainly to be congratulated at having such a musician in their midst.

Mrs. Lampert did her part with her customary dash and spirit, as well as with a remarkably clear voice, which showed that she is a soloist having a real control over her vocal powers. Both Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Lampert can be assured that the people of Newton who attended the concert will always look forward to hearing them again.

As regards the Orchestra, we feel that the community hardly realizes what they have right in the city of Newton. It is an organization playing their concerts with an enrollment of 55 players, only a few of whom are professional, and hired especially for the occasion. This Orchestra is managed and conducted by the Congregational Church, purely in the interests of the community. As the "Newton Graphic" understands it, the orchestra is never supposed to play for a charged admission, except when doing their part to raise money for Newton charities, or probably to make up a deficit at the end of the year. For the past three years this organization has been giving six or seven concerts a year, all of a very high class, and is absolutely free to the community. It surely is fast becoming an institution worthy of permanency. Their conductor, Mr. Ralph D. McLean, is very ably presenting to the public musical numbers which cannot be heard outside of the big symphony concerts given by professional players of Boston and other large cities of our country. Mr. McLean's powers of interpretation, control over the musicians, as well as his personality, makes it a privilege to listen, on the part of the audience, and play on the part of the musician.

The membership of this orchestra is open to anyone in the community, who desires high class ensemble orchestral practice. The Orchestra presents to the community another symphony concert on Sunday afternoon, March 20th, at 4 o'clock, and we feel sure that any of the residents of Newton who are able to attend will surely feel proud of the work done by this organization for the community in general.

Y. M. C. A. MEET

At the Y. M. C. A. last week Wednesday night, Newton and Lynn tied for points in the swimming meet, 34 to 34, although Newton, by taking the relay, is entitled to the victory. The meet was exciting from beginning to end, each team fighting hard. Trowbridge of Lynn, also of Technology, was the favorite of the evening, winning all his events, Jaquith, Barnes and Noonan excelled for Newton.

The result is as follows:
Twenty-yard dash: Trowbridge of Lynn, first; Barnes of Newton, second; Cunningham of Newton, third. Time, 9 sec.
Forty-yard breast stroke: Koch of Lynn, first; Jaquith of Newton, second; Donovan of Lynn, third. Time, 27 4-5 sec.
Forty-yard dash: Trowbridge of Lynn, first; Noonan of Newton, second; Bang of Newton, third. Time, 21 4-5 sec.

Plunge: Jaquith of Newton, first; Horsefall of Lynn, second; Leader of Lynn, third. Distances: 56 1-2 ft.; 49 ft.; 48 1-2 ft.
Forty-yard backstroke: Jaquith of Newton, first; Eaton of Lynn, second; Noonan of Newton, third. Time, 28 2-5 sec.

Hundred-yard swim: Trowbridge of Lynn, first; Noonan of Newton, second; Barnes of Newton, third. Time, 63 2-5 sec.

Dives: Bond of Lynn, first; Barnes of Newton, second; Gedney of Lynn, third.
Relay: Newton's team: Cunningham, Jaquith, Noonan, Barnes. Lynn's team: Bond, Wallace, Eaton, Trowbridge. Won by Newton. Time, 1 min. 31 sec.

Meets have been arranged with Cambridge, Lynn, and Riverside Club of Waltham, the latter team coming to Newton, April 6.

AN ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Cooney observed their seventh anniversary at their home, 280 Melrose street, Auburndale, March 9. A very pleasant evening was spent playing whist, Mr. Tange winning first prize for gentlemen, while Mrs. Poole carried off the first prize for ladies. The boobies were awarded to Mrs. Neilson and Mr. J. McDonald.

The host and hostess received among their gifts beautiful plants and cut flowers.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. D. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. E. Cooney, Mr. and Mrs. H. Derry, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. J. MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. H. Tange, Mr. and Mrs. E. Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Neilson.

The party broke up at midnight, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Cooney many years of happiness.

SPIRITUALIST ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. H. M. Cory will hold an anniversary meeting, this being the 34th year of her work as a Psychic, in Dennison Hall, corner of Washington and Walnut streets, Newtonville, Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30, evening session, Mr. George B. Cutler will lecture, followed by Mrs. Cory with messages.—Adv't.

THRIFT AS A VITAL FACTOR IN LIFE

The teachers and pupils of Lasell Seminary in Auburndale listened recently to a very inspiring lecture by William W. T. Squire, educational director of the Saving Division, First Federal Reserve District. Mr. Squire spoke as follows:

"It is my aim today to present a strictly personal view of a popular movement which is being fostered by the United States Treasury Department."

A writer in one of the Boston daily newspapers has said that "The economy wave has now become a typhoon of Thrift. Thrifty housewives are canning snowballs, the eight-day clocks have been reduced to six, and business is quieter than a correspondence school campus." But, to my mind there is little danger of anyone ever preaching Thrift so successfully that the world will reach the condition above mentioned, for there will always be people who will emulate the English King Richard III, who desired to offer his kingdom for a horse. However, we may look at it an uneconomical bargain for Richard.

The conditions of life which young woman face are materially different from those which confronted your mothers at your age. Women have now a more definite place in the state, and play a much more active part in public life, and therefore must devote more time to public problems.

W. L. George says of women that their "intellect flies out of the window when emotion comes in at the door." This of course is not true, but it really is important that the young women of today get their economics straight. Economics really is nothing more or less than the study of business in its relation to our every day life.

I have it on very good authority that some study of economics is at once a practical necessity and a moral obligation, and of course the practise of the principles learned is much more important than the study. Economics is based on human experience; but we must study because the individual cannot possibly experience all experiences the world provides. Therefore, we must study other people's experience, in order to determine whether or not the things that we do are beneficial or harmful to public interest.

The ability to succeed financially is essential to a well-rounded life, for the good citizen first of all must be self-sustaining, having become self-supporting, the next civic duty of an individual is to develop the capacity to save, so that in time of need the less fortunate may be assisted and the community enriched.

Frank A. Vanderlip recently wrote, "I have come to believe that half the woes in the world are directly attributable to ignorance of economic law and blindness to social injustice." I believe it is agreed that the key-stone of a good economic arch is the wise use of money. One must learn to properly balance quality and price to arrive at a fair judgment of value.

The popular practise known as budgeting is to be strongly recommended, although I frankly hesitate to suggest the details of such procedure to a feminine audience, because I have neither the desire nor the courage to advise a woman concerning what she ought to want and ought to have. However, I feel perfectly justified in advising that whatever her income may be, she should save a fair proportion of it, and as a method of practising the saving of money and applying the principles of safe investment, I urge all to utilize the system provided by the government for saving. Invest to the limit of your ability in government securities. As your headmaster has suggested, if they were more generally acquired, there would be no necessity for "blue sky" legislation.

To prove something of the extent of the Thrift movement in New England last year, I beg to inform you that $3,000,000 worth of Thrift and War Savings Stamps were bought by citizens in the First Federal Reserve District in 1920. This figure demonstrates that Thrift is becoming a vital factor in our lives, and that no citizen is playing his role to the best of his ability unless practising this habit, which is becoming a distinguished mark of the true American.

Y. M. C. A. BOYS' NOTES

On Sunday afternoon in the Newton Y. M. C. A. Hall about 100 men and boys heard a splendid talk by Mr. T. P. Patey of Newtonville. His subject was "The Great Game and How to Play It."

Mr. Patey was quite an athlete in his day, pitching for four years on the Dartmouth College baseball nine, beside being active in other branches of sport. His message was well received by all present. Added attractions for the meeting was a vocal solo by Mr. Fred Provost of Brookline, which was well rendered, both as to tonal quality and technique. The musical numbers by Mr. F. O. Harrell of Waltham were fine, which were given on the saxophone, bells and musical glasses. Mr. Francis C. Pitman presided at the piano, which helped immensely in rounding out a well balanced program for the meeting.

NORUMBEGA SWIMMING MEET

Wednesday evening, March 16, the troops of Norumbega met in the final swimming meet of the season at the Y. M. C. A. tank. Great enthusiasm was shown by all troops, each anxious to secure final honors as the best all round swimming troop of the council. The score of previous meets gave to Troop 4, Newton Highlands, one first and one second; to Troop 1 of Newtonville, one first; to Troop 7, West Newton, two seconds. Thus the final revolved about these troops with the addition of Troop 2 of Wellesley, which came forward with flying colors. Relay races, diving for plates, swimming under water and diving made up the contest, and after a very heated hour of rivalry, Troop 7 of West Newton won the honors with 25 points, Troop 4 came second with 24 points and Troop 2 of Wellesley third with 21 points. A fine time was enjoyed by all, and it is hoped that next year a silver cup will be on hand to present to the best swimming troop of Norumbega.

school at Boston University. He said Dr. Butters is asked to have charge of more funerals and memorial services than any man of his acquaintance. This is because of his optimism. He does not make people feel sad and depressed at such occasions, but gives them the beautiful hope of life eternal and the joy of future meeting with loved ones "just gone before."

Dr. Butters spoke of the relation of Dr. Butters to the older members of the ministry, as well as to the young students whose name for him is "Daddy Butters," spoken in loving tones by every young theological student at the university. One had only to glance at the students present that evening to be sure of the truth of the above statement.

Dr. Butters "boys" are scattered all over the world. Many Bishops are numbered among them: Bishop Hughes, Bishop Birney, Bishop Blake, Bishop Fisher, Bishop Burns and others; beside hundreds of men in the pastorate, some in the most prominent of the churches in Methodism.

When Bishop Hughes was introduced as the next speaker, one would have just what was left for him to say, but he was not at a loss for words of love and praise for his good friends. Bishop Hughes said he had known and loved Dr. Butters since he (the bishop) came as a young man to the Boston University School of Theology thirty-two years ago. "At that time Dr. Butters was an occasional speaker at Boston University; now he is professor in practical theology at Boston University."

He said the first New England home in which he was entertained at dinner was the home of Dr. and Mrs. Butters, then in Newtonville. He told of some of the details of that dinner, showing what a lasting impression it made upon his mind. He said this spirit of hospitality was one followed by Dr. and Mrs. Butters throughout the whole of the forty years of his ministry.

He quoted Longfellow's "Golden Legend," the quotation being one used years ago in a letter he had received from Dr. Butters:

"O blessed Lord! how much I need thy light to guide me on my way! So many hands that without heed, Still touch thy wounds and make them bleed!"

So many feet that day by day, still wander from thy fold astray! Unless thou fill me with thy light, I cannot lead my flock aright; Nor without thy support can bear the burden of so great a care.

But am myself a castaway? He also spoke of Dr. Butters's skill as a letter writer. In conclusion he added "there is no better loved man in all New England ministerial circles than the one we honor this evening."

Dr. Bates in a few well chosen words told something of the place Dr. and Mrs. Butters hold in the hearts of their immediate neighbors and presented Mrs. Butters with a bouquet of roses as a token of this love. He then introduced Mr. William S. Wagner, treasurer of the church. Mr. Wagner said was pretty strong, however, "I would guarantee that his word was worth more to Dr. Butters than that of the previous speakers. He then presented Dr. Butters with a check for $800, a gift of love and appreciation from his parishioners and friends."

Dr. Butters was most agreeably surprised and said he appreciated all that had been done for him and for Mrs. Butters, but he thought what had been said was pretty strong, however, "I agree with all you have said of this dear woman here." He said he realized that the evening's pleasure meant a great deal of hard work for a great many people and he was glad to think of it as a labor of love, something to be remembered always by Mrs. Butters and himself.

The church was decorated with beautiful flowers, gifts to Mrs. Butters. The church ladies' parlor, where the receiving line stood, and the parish house were made beautiful with many palms and potted plants, furnished by W. A. Riggs, Auburndale florist.

The color scheme in the parish house was yellow, green and white, quantities of crepe paper and flowers were used with wonderful effect. An orchestra behind a lattice of flowers and foliage furnished music during the reception and refreshments.

There were representatives present from all of the churches which Dr. Butters had served, from the school of theology of Boston University, where he is professor of practical theology, from Lasell Seminary, where he is a great favorite among the students, beside those from churches of other denominations and the people of the entertaining church.

ous organization. Over one hundred men are backing the movement with their enthusiasm and support financially. It's a boys' movement backed up by men.

The Norumbega Council comes to the citizens of Newton for the sum of $5,000 to finance this work for boys. Every dollar spent is spent wisely. Money invested in this movement is well invested. Its returns will be in character and real manhood. Beginning March 15th the Boy Scout Campaign begins. Do your part to help the boys of Newton.

NEWTON Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Dr. Charles R. Ross, pastor of the Methodist Church at Newtonville, was the speaker at the Fellowship Club on Monday evening, March 14th. Dr. Ross's topic was: "The Modern Man and the Christian Church." He outlined the great scope of the modern church work so that any modern man would be proud to have a part in it.

State Boys' Day will be held on Saturday, March 19th. About 50 of the brightest and most interested members of the junior department have signed up to raise money not only for their own department, but for the boys of the State, nation and the world. Any friends of the boys and of the association who may wish to help them in their endeavors may be assured that the money will be well spent.

There are four groups of boys, each striving to come out ahead. The Debating Club, lead by Wilson Weidner, the Hi-Y Club, lead by Mr. Anson T. Leary, Boys' Physical Dept., headed by S. A. Carling, and a group of boys comprising a team captained by Mr. F. E. Doubleday. The winner will be announced at the supper given on Saturday evening.

council. There is, at the present time, a subtle propaganda to force the United States to join the League of Nations through certain concessions. Unless public opinion makes itself heard, and we are alive to the situation, this constitutes a real danger. The League of Nations has nothing in it which can help us, nor anything by which we can help other nations.

When we do take a part in European affairs we want to do it according to American ideals. Our ideals are not those of Europe. For example, we, unlike Europe, have always paid for territory which we have acquired, even when the nation from whom we have acquired it has been defenceless. Nor would we as a nation ever have agreed to the taking of Shantung. Ideals come only through gradual development.

America is, at present, the acknowledged leader of the world. The financial situation is absolutely in our hands, yet only 1-25 of the men of our country are familiar with finance. We ought to have twenty-five times as many men familiar with international banking as we have, and as many more familiar with diplomacy. We are almost as unprepared for world leadership now as we were unprepared at the beginning for war.

Yet America must shoulder her responsibilities. We must be prepared to deal with the problem of the Pacific, of the Philippines, and of Japan. The Yapt question, for example, is one about which we should be consulted. We had a share in the world war, and should have a share in the conditions following it.

As for China, the Republic has come to stay. Conditions between the North and the South are already becoming better, only a small section in Southern China is at present resisting the government. In a few years, China will have attained harmony within and will then begin to develop her resources.

The present famine conditions in China could probably have been met by China had it not been for the requisition of the railways, shipping, etc., by the military authorities, which prevented food from being brought from other parts of China to the afflicted provinces.

NEWTON CENTRE COMMUNITY WORK NOTES

On Wednesday evening, March 16th, the Older Boys' Council conducted an indoor track meet at the Y. M. C. A. About 40 boys from the various Newton Centre churches participated in both junior and senior events.

In the junior events, Ellis Appleton of the Episcopal Church easily carried off the honors with two firsts and three seconds. Robert Quick of the Methodist Church was second with two firsts and one second place. Wm. Cummings and Ray Rockwood of the Baptist Church were third and fourth respectively with eleven and nine points each.

For the seniors, Sargent Goddard of the Congregational Church was the winning point getter, with eleven points to his credit. P. Gray of the same church was a close second with ten points. Robert Lemont and Hughes Wagner of the Methodist Church finished third and fourth respectively with seven and six points each.

GIRL SCOUTS

When the new Girl Scout Hand Book came out a year ago a number of new Merit Badges appeared in it. Among these were the Group Badges. These Group Badges are awarded to Girl Scouts who have already earned certain other badges.

The most popular Group Badge this year has been the Scout Entertainer. This badge has been won by a number of Scouts. To win this badge a girl must already have two of the following badges: Hostess, Musician, Dancer, Story Teller, Reciter, Leader of Games.

The following Scouts have won this badge:

Troop 2—Captain Redfield—Scouts Dorothy Barba, Eloise Barber, Mary Marshall, Frances Holmes, Mabel Williamson, Edith Pearson, Ruth Pearson, Barbara Partridge, Helen Nagel, Louise Maguire.

Troop 3—Captain Ordway—Scouts Joan Burnham, Faith Stone, Evelyn Perry, Gretchen Cook.

Troop 5—Scouts Ethel Laughlin, Eleanor Gile, Celia Rogers, Alice Eaton.

To win the Community Scout Badge a girl must have four of the following badges: Citizen, Health Guardian, Economist, Business Woman, Telegrapher, Interpreter, Motorist, Canner. This badge has been won by Lieutenant Margaret Ball of Troop 2, Lieutenant Ruth Ayers of Troop 4.

Another Group Badge is the Woodcraft Scout. To win this Scout must have three of the following badges: Athlete, Motorist, Horsewoman, Sailor, Swimmer, Pioneer, Pathfinder. This badge also has been won by two officers: Captain Ordway, Troop 3, and Lieutenant Ayers, Troop 4.

The only other Group Badge to be won by the Newton Girl Scouts thus far is the Scout Naturalist. This badge requires three of the following subjects: Bird Hunter, Flower Finder, Rock Tapper, Star Gazer, Zoologist. The badge has been won by Captain Ordway of Troop 3 and by Lieutenant Ayers of Troop 4.

There are only two more group badges, the Scout Aide and the Land Scout, but as yet none of the Newton Girl Scouts have won either of them.

Now that the Spring seems really to have come, the Troops will start more of day work. It is just the time to begin on the Bird Hunter work and all the girls are urged to keep a careful record of when, where and how they see the birds. It is also time to be thinking about the Flower Finder test. Let us make these two tests the most popular ones this Spring.

HUNNEWELL CLUB

Members of the Hunnewell Club are busy rehearsing for their big annual entertainment which is to be given on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, April 5th and 6th.

This year's show will be the biggest ever, as everyone is in it, including wives of members, who will give a one act play before the big musical show. It is hoped to have eight men and there are many surprises and novelties to be introduced during the evening performance.

WEST NEWTON W. C. T. U.

The West Newton W. C. T. U. has begun a series of silver teas to increase its funds for philanthropic work. Mrs. M. Millie Beardsley held one at her home recently and Mrs. G. G. Jenkins of Newtonville had one last week.

Six members of the Union were entertained at lunch at Mrs. Jenkins' home last week Thursday and in the afternoon put a quilt together to be sent to the Harriet Tubman W. C. T. U. of Boston.

M., address by Dr. E. Morris Ferguson in the Congregational Church.

JUNIOR LEAGUE FAIR

The members of the Junior Christian Endeavor Society of the Methodist Church are to be congratulated upon their very successful fair, held on Tuesday afternoon and evening.

The fair was under the supervision of Mrs. George W. Barber. Among the very attractive tables which offered tempting wares to the visitor were the following: Apron Table (Mrs. W. H. Wallace), Fancy Table (Mrs. E. T. Rackliffe), Grocery Table (Mrs. E. T. Wetherbee), Ice Cream Table (Mrs. W. B. Porter), Cake Table (Mrs. Alfred E. Allen), Candy Table (Mrs. Charles Smith), Grabs (Mrs. Robert Curran).

An interesting feature of the afternoon was "The Enterprise of the Mayflower," a series of scenes depicting colonial times, in which the members of the Junior Christian Endeavor Society took part, with Mrs. Effie Nagel at the piano.

The play opened with the singing of "The Breaking Waves." This was followed by a tableau depicting the signing of the Mayflower compact. Other scenes represented the coming of Samoset, a scene in Priscilla's house and a scene in which a Puritan maid is rewarded for her obedience to her mother by being given the first Mayflower of the season. The final scene represented a Thanksgiving feast in honor of the wedding of Priscilla and John Alden.

Between the acts a solo was sung by Miss Eleanor Rackliffe, accompanied by Master Jack Rackliffe, and a solo was also sung by Miss Grace Strum. These added much to the enjoyment of the occasion.

After the entertainment, an excellent cafeteria supper was served, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Henry S. Urquhart, assisted by Mrs. Damon Kilgore.

The play was coached by Mrs. George W. Barber, assisted by Mrs. Charles W. Smith.

TROOP 7, BOY SCOUTS

Deputy Commissioner L. R. W. Leland, together with a corps of Court of Honor men, consisting of Scout Executive William Sharatt, Deputy Commissioner Everett W. Varney, Mr. Earle J. Ovington, Mr. H. Hovendon, and Mr. C. H. Woodward, visited Troop 7 and examined seventeen boys in all classes of tests, sixteen of them passing.

Assistant Patrol Leader Loomis Patrick is now a first class scout. Scouts Lovell, Campbell, Flint, R. Rogers, W. Rogers, Brooks, Roberts, Walsh and Carter successfully passed their second class tests. Donald Dewire, Arthur Clark, Monroe Gill, Nat Ladd, Allan Cooke and Edwin Covey were added to the troop membership as tenderfoot scouts.

The initiation of these six new scouts, always a matter of much interest to the other members of the troop, will take place in the near future.

Phil Hoyt, a patrol leader and a merit badge scout, was told at the last meeting by Deputy Commissioner E. W. Varney that he had won two more merit badges. This makes five that Phil will soon be wearing on his coat sleeve. He now is only outdone by Patrol Leader Dwight Shepler, a 1st and Star Scout, who has eleven merit badges to his credit. Senior Patrol Leader "Bill" Phelps is third with three merit badges. This snappy young leader, however, has made application for several more.

The swimming team to represent the troop was picked by Scouts Phil Hays and "Bill" Phelps and the scoutmasters, as follows: Hoyt, Dewing, C. and W. Phelps, 160-yard relay; Bryant and Carter, plunge; Patrick, Crosby, Park, Kenny, Hoyt, Dewing, C. and W. Phelps, 8 man 160 yard relay; Shepler and W. Phelps, diving; Phil Hoyt and C. Phelps, swimming under water; Shepler, diving for plates; Dewing and Phelps, swimming on back; Campbell, Bolster, E. Dewing, F. Hoyt, F. Rogers, W. Rogers, 120 yard relay.

Troop 7 is earnest about capturing the district honors in points for the month of March.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

The chairman of Conservation of Natural Resources of the State Federation, Mrs. Julian C. Woodman, is reminding club women through the columns of Federation Topics, that now is the time to encourage the birds. "Birds are with us," she says, "and soon will be house-hunting. Cooperate with them by putting out bird houses, and by cleaning those already in position. Bird houses should be placed from six to fifteen feet high, in sun or light shade, never in deep shade or deep woods. Face them away from strong winds or driving storms. Set them upright, or if on leaning limbs, on the under side, hole facing down. Fasten securely. A little clean sawdust or chaff is liked by some birds. Have entrance holes near the top."

will meet on Monday, March 21st, with Mrs. Isaac Goddard and will complete the study of King Henry IV, Part I, under the leadership of Mrs. Hiram A. Miller.

Anne Varner Baker will give the members of the Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club "An Evening of Fun" at the Auditorium on Monday, March 21, at 8 o'clock. Her entertainment consists of clever crayon pictures, stories and clay modelling.

Tuesday afternoon, March 22, Mrs. Grace M. Poole gives the last of her course of talks on Current Events before the Newtonville Woman's Club.

At the Congregational Church on Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, the Auburndale Review Club, assisted by Castle Stirling, K. O. K. A., will hold an open meeting. Mrs. Nelson Freeman will give an organ recital preceding the lecture by Dr. William Byron Forbush, founder of the Order of the Knights of King Arthur. His subject will be "The Manhood and Womanhood of Tomorrow." A cordial invitation is extended to all who may be interested in hearing this most interesting and versatile speaker.

Mrs. William C. Crawford speaks on Current Events before the Newton Social Science Club next Wednesday morning.

On Thursday morning, March 24, Miss Alice Bradley will give a demonstration lecture on "Quickly Prepared Suppers," before the Newton Centre Woman's Club, under the auspices of the Home Economics committee.

March 24, Mr. Philip W. Ayers, forester of the Society for the Protection of New Hampshire Forests, will speak before the Newton Community Club on "The White Mountain National Forests, and their Effect upon the Future of New England." All lovers of the White Mountains will welcome Mr. Ayers most cordially. He puts something of the wild spirit of the mountains into his addresses, which makes it a delight to listen to him.

Remembering the great success of the club's first venture in dramatics last year, the members are looking forward eagerly to the performance of April 14, when Oscar Wilde's three-act comedy, "The Importance of Being Earnest," will be presented both afternoon and evening in Players' Hall, West Newton. The same arrangements are being made about tickets as last year and information concerning them will go out to members early next week. Several new players have been added to last year's cast and rehearsals are now in progress.

The last lesson of the present season of the class in Conservation of Natural Resources will be held at the Hunnewell Club on Friday, April 1, at 10 o'clock. The subject of study is as follows:

1. Report of Malden garden work given by Mrs. Myron Davis of Malden.
2. Two-minute summaries of the last lesson given by members of the class. Questions and discussion.
3. Subject of the day, continuing the topic of the year: Disposal of the Earth's rainfall. a.—Fly-off; b.—Run-off, direct and indirect; c.—Cut-off. Effects and control of each for all the purposes of human life.

Local Happenings

In an address on "Youth and its Present Day Handicaps" before the Newton Community Club last week Thursday afternoon, Dr. Alfred E. Stearns, headmaster of Phillips Andover Academy, assailed the home, the school, the church, the movie and modern social activities in no uncertain manner in their failure to educate, which in the broadest sense of the term is to develop the character of the youth of today. There is nothing which will ever take the place of the home in the upbringing of youth, but the modern home is not functioning as it used to function.

The next most important factor is the school, and the public schools are doing a great work, but they are not doing what they should, for many over the land are closed because there are no teachers, and where there are, many are being taught by those who are ill-prepared.

The other great factor, the church, is not doing what it used to do, it is not drawing, gripping, holding, inspiring the young people with religious ideals as it did in the past. We can't afford to let this factor go without an effort.

"The movie," said Dr. Stearns, "is the most deadly and pernicious influence in this land, or any other land." The popular magazines, too, are filled with stuff and filth, such as in his own youth appeared only in small pamphlets which were passed around among a few low-minded men in college.

As for the modern social activities, especially the modern dances, Dr. Stearns could not understand what parents were thinking about to let their boys and girls be subjected to the influences and temptations surrounding it. Some hopeful signs he is beginning to see, for things have gone so far that they can't go farther without a complete crash. In movements led by the students themselves, primarily by the boys. He cited recent action on the part of young men at New Haven at the time of the Junior Prom. Their better natures are rising in protest.

The speaker feels that the mothers are largely responsible, in that they want their daughters to be popular and have not placed around them sufficient restraint. He said we hardly realize how much young men depend upon their belief in the high-mindedness of their girl friends. There must be a restoration of this trust among girls, for upon it depends the virility of the coming generation.

Prolonged applause testified to the appreciation of the audience for Dr. Stearns' frank and forceful presentation of the subject.
The club was glad to welcome again the chorus, the selection rendered adding much to the pleasure of all.

At the regular meeting of the Waban Woman's Club on Monday afternoon at the Waban Neighborhood Club house, the hostesses for the day were Mrs. Cheney, Mrs. Talbot and Mrs. Barnard. There were three violin solos delightfully rendered by Miss Gladys Tucker Joyce. The speaker for the afternoon was Mr. Horace Taylor, and his subject, "Bird Life in Science and Song." Innumerable beautiful colored plates were shown, and many bird calls were most cleverly imitated. A most urgent and touching appeal was made by Mrs. Lincoln for the Near East Relief. After the meeting adjourned tea was served.

The meeting of the Auburndale Woman's Club was held on Tuesday last in the Congregational Chapel in Auburndale. During the business meeting the attention of the audience was vividly focussed in the Near East Relief, how the funds devoted to children are expended, and why "say it with flour."

Miss Amy M. Sacker, the speaker of the afternoon, transported her hearers to Hollywood, Cal., giving a delightful account of her experience as art director in the famous movie studios. She explained much of the technique in motion picture production, how the scenes are arranged and the pictures actually taken, how costumes and properties are provided and cared for, and how each part of the immense organization functions. She gave intimate glimpses of well known stars in their life both on and off stage, telling of the devices by which they secure the ever desired publicity. She discussed the screen play itself, both from the standpoint of the studio, and from the standpoint of the average movie attendee. A successful movie must have suspense, appeal, humor, and contrast. Miss Sacker's talk, like a good scenario, possessed these four qualities, carrying along a compelling personal interest from the Tuesday evening when her "first set was shot," to the amusing stories which closed her address.

President's Day of the Newtonville Woman's Club was a very pleasant occasion. There was a short musical program, consisting of vocal selections with violin and piano accompaniment, violin solos and a group of songs by the following artists: Mrs. Jessie Nute Bennett, contralto; Miss Helen Tower, violin, and Miss Florence Williams, piano.

The president, Mrs. Joseph C. Hagar, then welcomed the visiting presidents, and introduced Miss Heloise E. Hersey, of Boston, who gave a most interesting and uplifting lecture upon "The Modern Novel in its Relation to the Modern Woman."

The novel, she said, is one of the late forms of literature, being hardly more than one hundred years old. The poets cared more for the people in masses, the novelist has made the individual the centre of interest. The novel is not a narrative of things as they happened; rather, the novelist chooses and develops his theme from real life, not as the photographer, but as the portrait painter. The truth he wishes to express is often symbolic, impossible to define. In these modern times, happy is he who can!

A long time, she said, is one of the best tests of a novel. One thousand are consigned to oblivion, to one that is consigned to the hall of fame. The Boston Public Library has little of current fiction, most of the books being from one to five years old before being placed upon the shelves. The true function of literature is that "we may have life and have it more abundantly." A novel is good or bad, as it meets or fails to meet that test.

Today's novels are appalling in their number, some 5,000 being published each year in the United States alone. In general, they emphasize the character of the hero or heroine at the expense of the plot, the modern novel having little plot. The work of many recent writers was characterized and held up to the test of "giving life," and much of it was found to leave the reader dull and unresponsive with every good emotion paralyzed.

The well-balanced person is equally guided by the intellect, the emotions, and the emotions. With the heroines of today, it is a domination of the emotions over the others, and they have a new emotion every fifteen minutes. Writers have learned how to write very well, their conversation is very clever, quite in contrast to the stilted, formal, unnatural conversation of the novels of the 80's.

Miss Hersey in closing reminded her hearers that the novelists are painting life as they find it. If we are not satisfied with their picture, the fault lies with those who are living today, and it rests with each one to help to determine the note of the novel of the future.

Following the lecture, which was accorded enthusiastic applause at its conclusion, the guests passed through the long receiving line of officers and descended to the room below, where dainty refreshments were served by the Hospitality committee, Mrs. L. W. Leland, chairman; Mrs. F. E. French, Mrs. A. T. Hill, Mrs. Arthur W. Chamberlain and Mrs. C. B. Whitney presided over the table.

At the meeting of the Social Science Club on Wednesday morning, Mrs. Louis S. Drake presented the plans of the program committee for the coming year, the suggestion being that some of the encouraging things of the times be dwelt upon.

The speaker of the morning was Dr. A. Warren Stearns, who gave a most unusual and stimulating lecture upon "Mental Hygiene in Industry." In opening, he regretted that there is nothing in mental hygiene which corresponds to the toothbrush of dental hygiene, that is, nothing tangible and definite, no one specific to be recommended.

Mental diseases, he said, fall into four definite groups: Insanity, feeble-mindedness, psycho-neurotic, and abnormal personalities. Persons in the first group are not of much of any economic value. The feeble-minded, on the other hand, may become perfectly good workmen. He cited ninety-three boys of this class, who had earned in a year $110,000, so that there is a future for them in industry.

In the third group are placed those functional nervous disorders which the speaker has been wont to consider due to "the degeneracy of modern times"; but since he had discovered that from Plato and Aristotle down people have decried the degeneracy of their own times, he had concluded that because our ideals are so far ahead of our attainments, the past looks better to us. As a matter of fact, many things show us that the times are not degenerating, and cited as one example that the death rate is steadily going down. Persons embraced in this group play the role of the martyr in industry. They fatigue easily, are unable to do humdrum work and much of industry predisposes to this. But a great group of them may be saved to industry by proper regulation of their work.

The last group, that of abnormal personalities, is made of three general types, those who emotionally unstable, and it is possible to increase their emotional control; the inadequate personality, where there is something the matter with the volition. This type should be used in industry; and thirdly, the paranoid personality. Dr. Stearns illustrated his talk with examples of persons whom he has known as fitting into these various types. In the course of the discussion he expressed his doubt as to the value of much of the so-called vocational guidance and was also somewhat skeptical as to the "army tests" which psychologists are proposing to substitute for entrance examinations for admission to college.

ELIOT FORUM

"The Newton Free Library's Work Among Foreigners" was the subject of the address given last Sunday by Harold T. Dougherty, librarian of the Newton Free Library, before the Eliot Church Forum.

Mr. Dougherty started by stating that the total foreign born population of Newton, according to the census of 1915, the last figures available, was 11,485, and that of these, 8,241 were born in Great Britain or some of its provinces, leaving as a basis for discussion in his talk 3,244, about 7 per cent of the total population of the city. He showed that the foreign born was distributed over the city according to the figures in the following paragraph:

According to the 1915 census there are in Ward 1, 1,887; Ward 2, 2,140; Ward 3, 1,702; Ward 4, 1,086; Ward 5, 1,722; Ward 6, 1,980; Ward 7, 968. For the foreign born there is a total of 2,129 volumes in the library. These have been supplemented to a great extent by books from the Massachusetts Free Library Commission. The circulation of these foreign books during 1920 amounted to 1,369 volumes, or less than one-half volume per capita of foreign born. This figure alone shows the need of extension in this phase of the work, for the per capita circulation of all books in the library for all residents of the city amounted in 1920 to over eight volumes, a total of 378,000 books.

Mr. Dougherty went on to show how by the use of certain types of books the library was able to create an interest for the studying of English, books both for the student and for the teacher. He showed that there was an interest among those born outside of the country to become naturalized, and the books which were useful in this as well as others which had concern of the laws and living conditions which are in vogue in the United States. He spoke about various books which the librarians and others were instrumental in procuring the publication of, especially mentioning Mrs. Canoutas. Mrs. Canoutas's volume and title was "Our Babies," a thousand and copies of which were published in modern Greek. He mentioned the volume and title, "The Story of America," by Alberto Pecorini, for the Massachusetts Society of Colonial Dames. This book is written in Latin-root English on the one page with the Italian on the opposite.

Reference was made to the Reverend Mr. Dingwell's talk on the "Civic Theatre," given in Eliot Church a few weeks ago. It was thought that this phase of the work here in Newton might not be conducted as it is in Rhode Island because of the variance of numbers of the foreign born. Mr. Dougherty emphasized, however, the opportunity which was presented in Nonantum, where according to the census figures there are in the neighborhood of 900 Italians, of conducting a larger library service by having an attractive building for the library quarters, and a library worker to give full time towards the development of the work of foreigners in that section. He spoke of the library as being one of the institutions which could readily take up this work inasmuch as it is non-sectarian, non-political, and a most cosmopolitan institution as it aims to serve all citizens without distinction. He ended by stating that this talk was not one of accomplishment, but a vision of what is ahead to be done.

FEARING—ROBBINS

The marriage of Mr. William I. Fearing of Park street, Newton, and Miss Helen Robbins of Chicago, Ill., has recently been reported.

Mr. Fearing was in South America, where he went last October, as the business representative of the Boston firm of Fearing, Whiton & Co., converters of cotton goods at 65 Franklin street, of which he is the assistant treasurer.

In Buenos Aires he met Miss Robbins who was visiting her sister, Mrs. Bonell, whose husband is traffic manager in Argentina for Armour & Co. The marriage took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bonell on Feb. 26. Mr. Fearing and his bride later left for a journey over the Andes to Chile, and there began their homeward voyage, which took them through the Panama Canal and then north by steamer to New York, for which they are now en route.

Mr. Fearing, Dartmouth 1909, went to the first Plattsburg Camp, and in the recent war he served as captain of a machine gun company in the Seventy-Fourth Regiment, Twelfth Division, and was stationed for service at Camp Devens and at different camps in the West. He was later at the second and third Plattsburg camps, and was made a captain of the United States Reserves. He has been deeply interested in sports, especially yachting and golf, and is a member of the Corinthian Yacht Club at Marblehead Neck, the Tedesco Country Club in Swampscott and the Brae Burn Country Club. He belongs also to the Boston Athletic Association.

BREWER—NOSTRAND

Mr. William C. Brewer, Jr., of Gibbs street, Newton Centre, was married last Friday to Miss Jeannette B. Nostrand, daughter of Mrs. S. S. Nostrand of Jamaica, New York.

The bride wore a gown of white satin and Duchess lace and the bridesmaids, Miss Josephine Cooper of Montclair, N. J., and Miss Helen Asam of Philadelphia, Pa., wore gowns of rose and green chiffon over silver cloth.

The best man was Mr. Warren Brewer of Newton Centre, and the ushers, Mr. Robert C. Fitch of Newton Centre and Mr. Robert Van Kirk of Wilmington, Del.

A reception at the "Colonial Arms" followed the ceremony, the "Colonial Arms" being beautifully decorated for the occasion.

There were many friends from the Newtons, as well as from New York, Philadelphia, and New Jersey present. After a trip to Niagara Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Brewer will make their home in Jamaica, N. Y.

The bride is a graduate of Wellesley College, 1918, and the groom of Williams College, 1918.

NORTH GATE CLUB

The second of a series of three informal dancing parties will be held in the club house tonight at 8:30 o'clock. These parties, under the direction of the following committee: Mr. Boltz (chairman), Mr. Carter, Mr. Cox and Mr. Amidon, are proving very popular with the younger set of the nearby Newtons.

Walter Johnson's orchestra will again entertain with dance music supreme and several novelties are promised by Mr. Jefferson of the famous Jefferson-Johnson combination, who is known to all lovers of specialized syncopation. There will also be several novelty dances. Among the participants will be friends and guests from Brookline, Boston and Auburndale. The committee feel sure that "a good time was had by all present" will be a perfectly appropriate description of tonight's dance.

For 50 years I have sold hats on Washington Street. This should mean to you 'dependability.' For 50 years my business has been increasing. This surely suggests to your mind quality. As regards low prices, I will not try to instill into your minds that five dollars will purchase the best hat obtainable, for it would be deceiving you. $5.00 means a good hat, but not, as perhaps you have been led to believe, an $8 or $10 proposition.

—At the 4:00 o'clock vespers next Sunday afternoon the orchestra of the First Church in Newton Centre will play for the first time in America the symphony of Saint-Saens, dedicated to President Poincare, entitled "Cyprus et Lauriers." The first movement is for the organ alone, a solemn and majestic threnody lamenting the fallen in the war. The second movement for the organ and orchestra, mounting gradually from the sombre tone of the earlier movement to a heroic and triumphant strain, celebrating the victors. This composition is on the program of the Symphony Orchestra in Boston later in the season.

HATFIELD CHOSEN

Former Mayor is Now Treasurer of Middlesex County

Former Mayor Charles E. Hatfield was yesterday chosen treasurer of Middlesex County, to fill the unexpired term of the late Joseph O. Hayden. The County Commissioners were unanimous in their choice of Mr. Hatfield, whose banking experience and executive ability qualify him for the office. His term does not expire until the fall of 1922.

NEWTON CHORAL SOCIETY

The Newton Choral Society, Wm. Lester Bates, Conductor, and Miss Lillian West, Accompanist, is completing its preparation for the Spring concert, Monday evening, April eleventh. It has added to its Chorus of one hundred and fifty, an orchestra of fifty players, who have been rehearsing with the chorus for the last few weeks. Both orchestra and chorus are strictly Community affairs, and what is more remarkable the orchestra, which is a well balanced band, containing all the instruments of a full Symphony, is entirely non-professional, containing no hired players.

The program which this enthusiastic body is preparing, has for its chief work, Coleridge Taylor's "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast," and in addition a number from Haydn's "Creation" and the final Chorus from Bach's "Sleepers Wake." In all of these works the Chorus will be accompanied by its own Orchestra.

MANY GRASS FIRES

Department Answered Twenty-six Alarms During the Past Week

Since last Friday the local Fire Department has responded to twenty-six alarms. None of the fires, however, were serious. Twenty-two of the calls were for grass fires, three for chimney fires and one alarm was given because of a blaze in an automobile.

The extreme dryness has been a cause of anxiety for the firemen in any locality where there are extensive areas of dry grass, particularly in the vicinity of the railroad tracks, where the danger from engine sparks is ever present.

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL

Report for First Year of the Advisory Board for Social Activities

Although its work for the first year of its existence has been largely preparatory, the first annual report of the Central Council of Social Activities indicates that the project is successful and that the need which led to its organization is being satisfactorily filled.

The report follows: The organization of the Central Council of Social Activities of Newton came about because of a growing conviction on the part of several thoughtful people, that the Social Agencies in this City needed to understand each other better and needed to work in closer co-operation.

Mr. George M. Angier, Chairman of the Newton Chapter, American Red Cross, called a meeting in January, 1920, which resulted in the organization of the Central Council.

The Charter Membership, consisting of 10 Agencies, has increased during the year to twenty with 41 delegates. The meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month from October through June.

The Council has three officers: Chairman, Vice-Chairman and Secretary. These officers, together with three additional members, have constituted the Executive Committee. This Committee has met seven times during the year.

The Council has held nine meetings. The following organizations have been invited to present their work: The District Nursing Association of Newton.

The Newton Circle.
The Stearns School Centre.
The Newton Welfare Bureau.
The West Newton Music School.
The West Newton Neighborhood House.

The Newton Board of Health.
The Newton Hospital.
The Newton Hospital Aid Association.
The Newton Hospital Social Service League.

The Newton Red Cross.
The Newton City Charity Department.

On one occasion the Council met at luncheon at the Brae Burn Country Club. At this meeting Mr. Lichter (Continued on Page Four)

IMMIGRANTS AT WABAN

Unique Entertainment at Neighborhood Club in that Village

A shipload of immigrants arrived in Waban Saturday evening, March 19. The good ship, "Waban," tied up at the Neighborhood Club wharf at 9 o'clock. Capt. Blaney presided over the disembarking of a motley crowd, kept well in hand by Police Officer Davis and well disinfected and deloused by Mr. Chandler of the Red Cross.

Women with babies, with bundles, with birds in cages, with baskets or bundles on heads followed down the gang plank accompanied by as rough a looking set of men as ever were allowed to land in U. S. A.

A grand march was formed, headed by Capt. Blaney and Mrs. Moore. There were more peasant costumes than comic costumes and some were extremely beautiful, but the comic costumes were the source of merriment. Mrs. Reinhardt in a blue gray suit of the eighteenth-century, tight waisted, high shouldered, leg-o-mutton sleeved, was one of the latter. Mrs. Mason also as an Italian organ grinder came under this head. During an interval between two dances another organ grinder appeared with a larger monkey, remarkably skilled as a dancer. The identity of the dancing monkey remained hidden behind the mask.

Supper of hot dogs and pickles, root beer and near beer was passed about in large baskets and pitchers to the hungry crowd. The music was excellent and the fun—well, you should have heard the laughter! The federal authorities should keep an eye on some of the red-nosed, big whiskered disheveled men like Mr. Angier and Mr. Souther and Mr. Marr and others too numerous to mention that arrived here Saturday in the good ship "Waban."

COMPTROLLER DABOLL RESIGNS

City Clerk Filling Office Temporarily Till Aldermen Pick Successor

City Comptroller John Daboll tendered his resignation at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night and Alderman Nichols' motion that it be accepted immediately was unanimously adopted by the board.

On Tuesday Mayor Childs appointed City Clerk Frank M. Grant as temporary comptroller, and tonight there will be a special meeting of the aldermen to fill the office temporarily until a successor to Mr. Daboll can be found. It is probable that the aldermen will concur with the Mayor's action and leave Mr. Grant in temporary charge.

Mr. Daboll has filled the office since May, 1919. His salary has been $3,700 a year. His appointment gave Newton the distinction of being one of the first cities to install the system of accounting that the State Bureau of Statistics uses, and at present several attaches of the State department are at work in City Hall justifying the records. Following Mr. Daboll's appointment the ordinances were gradually changed so as to place all city accounting under his charge.

The aldermen adopted an ordinance at the meeting that places the licensing and inspection of dealers in fruit, vegetables, and fish in the care of the Sealer of Weights and Measures, where formerly this work has been done by the Board of Health.

Alderman Whidden offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling the attention of the School Committee and the Superintendent of Schools to the fact that school rooms are not regularly aired by opening the windows.

Following is the text of this resolution:

Resolved:

In view of the opinion of the Public Buildings Committee, formed from inspection of certain school buildings made at a visiting meeting of the committee March 16, with regard to the hygienic value of fresh air to the occupants of these buildings during school sessions, it is respectfully referred to the attention of the School

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Lasell

The annual concert of the Orphan Club was given on last week Wednesday evening and a very fine program presented.

Mr. Henry M. Dunham was the director and the following artists assisted: Miss Elsie Dennis, soprano; Miss Celia Goldman, violin; Miss Ruth Fraser, violin; Miss Wilhelmina Wagner, piano, and George S. Dunham presided at the organ. Miss Dorothy Shove and Miss Alice Pape of Lasell were the soloists in the cantata, "Dream Visions."

At the close of the concert there was a reception. Dr. and Mrs. O. M. Winslow and Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Dunham in the receiving line. Many guests were present and it was one of the most delightful occasions of the year.

On last Saturday morning at the lecture hour, A. C. McCrea spoke on the Near East Relief.

Rev. James A. Fairley, pastor of the Unitarian Church, Jamaica Plain, was the speaker at vespers on last Sunday evening.

Classical High School

The seniors have elected the following officers: Class orator, Roger Cummings; class historian, Sylvia Chapman. On Wednesday, announcement was made from the office that Catharine Jones has won honor of being the valedictorian for the class of 1921.

During the past week because of illness Principal Enoch Adams has been confined to his home.

The baseball squad has been busy every afternoon practicing at Claffin Field. During the Easter vacation practice will be held every morning at ten o'clock. Carl Schipper, the manager, announces the following schedule: April 9, Rindge at Rindge; April 16, Everett; April 19, Cambridge; April 21, Brookline; April 23, Malden; April 27, Somerville at Somerville.

The baseball candidates are practicing faithfully, so many boys reporting that it has been decided to have two representative ones.

Fourteen members of the eighth grade have not been absent this school year. This number will be intact for the rest of the year, if perseverance counts. The pupils are: Joseph Antenucci, Emile Caron, Henry Casey, Fred Coletti, Lawrence Mazzola, John McCarthy, John Moran, Charles Littlefield, Cecile Champagne, Grace Dalton, Catharine Doucet, Florence Langille, Mildred Landon, Ruth Turner.

The Mothers' Club held annual election of officers on Monday evening. The following were elected for the year 1921-1922: President, Mrs. F. Seward; vice-president, Mrs. Paul Champagne; secretary, Mrs. J. E. Crandell; treasurer, Mrs. F. G. Wombold. Plans for the annual banquet in May and a whist party in April were discussed by the social committee and presented to the members present.

The Newton Girls' Club entertained the Waltham Girls' Club at the Stearns School Hall on Tuesday evening. The party was in the form of a "Character Party." Prizes were awarded for the prettiest, the most original and the funniest costumes. A short entertainment was followed by dancing and refreshments.

Members of the Boy Scouts are busily engaged in constructing two carts for transporting supplies and equipment on long hikes. The Flying Eagle Patrol is making one of these and the other is being constructed by various boys under Mr. Holman's supervision. Each cart will measure 32 by 72 inches, with sides 10 inches deep. On arrival in camp the body is removed from the wheels and is set upon the ground, where it forms a dining table for eight scouts. A cart of this kind cost before the war about $40. The cost today would be more, but Mr. Holman thinks that both carts may be made for the pre-war price of one by careful planning and conservative use of materials.

Eight boys passed their tenderfoot tests and were admitted to the Troop last Thursday. Patrol flags for the Beaver, Flying Eagle, Panther, Stag and Wolf Patrols have arrived and will be presented at the next meeting. Our Troop Committee met Monday and discussed plans for troop activities during the coming summer. Among other things planned were a camp at the Cape and an entertainment to be given in the near future for demonstration purposes and for raising funds.

Said Commissioner reserves the right to reject either, any or all proposals or an ypart of any proposal, or to accept any proposal or any part of any proposal.

GEORGE E. STUART,
Street Commissioner.

April 30, Medford at Medford; May 4, Rindge; May 11, Cambridge at Cambridge; May 14, Brookline at Brookline; May 18, Malden at Malden; May 21, Somerville; May 25, Medford; May 28, Malden; May 30, Rindge at Rindge; June 1, Cambridge; June 4, Brookline; June 8, Medford at Medford; June 11, Somerville at Somerville; June 17, Everett.

All games are to be played at Claffin Field unless otherwise stated.

Several hundred season tickets have been sold to the students.

The "Newtonian" subscriptions now number 565. Of this number over two-thirds have been paid for.

Burr School

Baseball has been taken up with much enthusiasm this Spring, twenty-seven trying for the team.

On March 18th, Miss Higgins' seventh grade pupils held a speaking contest. The room was divided into five sections, and the best speaker from these sections chosen. The judges were residents of Auburndale.

Mary Capadanno, class of 1920, gave a surprise party to Emily Paul, a member of last year's graduating class on Sunday, March 13. A number of friends were there, and all had a very enjoyable time.

Lasell

The work of the girls who were in the gymnasium drill Monday evening was very fine. Exhibitions were given in floor drill, apparatus and dancing by both the Lasell and Woodland pupils.

A very exciting basket ball game took place on Tuesday afternoon between the Blues and Whites—the Blues winning by a close score.

Much to the delight and surprise of the pupils of Lasell and Woodland, the faculty of those schools gave an entertainment on Wednesday evening. The performance consisted of five original farces, entitled "The Opening Day of School," "A Conducted Trip to Concord," "Dance-Caps and Gowns" and "Pupils Recital."

Spring vacation began on Thursday afternoon. School will reopen on the morning of Tuesday, April 5th.

A happy group of girls left on Thursday evening for the annual Washington trip, in charge of Miss Porter. There will also be a brief visit to Philadelphia and New York.

On Saturday afternoon, when Mr. McCrea made a plea for the Near East Relief Fund, the girls responded most generously, more than $600.00 being subscribed.

Mason School

Last Tuesday a party of 27 Eighth grade girls and boys visited the candy factory of the Samoset Chocolate Company on Atlantic avenue, in Boston. Through the kindness of Mr. H. P. Forte, the production manager, the party was shown through the plant from top to bottom and had competent guides to explain the various processes. At the end of the trip each person received a small souvenir box of Samoset chocolates.

During the past week ten boys have been collecting money in the village for purchasing athletic supplies needed by the children in the Mason district. Some of the money goes directly to equipping the Mason baseball team with bats and balls and some more is used to purchase soccer balls, medicine balls, indoor baseballs, etc., for the use of both boys and girls at recess time, not only in the Mason, but in the Rice and Bowen Schools as well.

Rooms 15 and 13 of the Mason School had a baseball game on the Newton Centre playground on Tuesday afternoon.

It ended about 4.45 in the first of the eighth inning with Room 13 winning, eleven to five.

Stearns School

The fifth industrial trip of the eighth grade was enjoyed Friday afternoon, when the class visited the Condit Shoe Company at Roxbury.

Considerable information was gotten first hand in the art of modern shoe making, for this plant is one of the most modern in the United States.

Excellent guides, very capable in explaining the many shoe making processes, were kindly allowed the class. The difference between the different sole stitches was very objectively explained. The class members felt very positive that they could judge and also explain accurately the value and use of the McKay stitch, Goodyear welt, and turned shoes. The next trip is planned to the plant of the Waltham Watch Co.

The baseball candidates are practicing faithfully, so many boys reporting that it has been decided to have two representative ones.

Fourteen members of the eighth grade have not been absent this school year. This number will be intact for the rest of the year, if perseverance counts. The pupils are: Joseph Antenucci, Emile Caron, Henry Casey, Fred Coletti, Lawrence Mazzola, John McCarthy, John Moran, Charles Littlefield, Cecile Champagne, Grace Dalton, Catharine Doucet, Florence Langille, Mildred Landon, Ruth Turner.

The Mothers' Club held annual election of officers on Monday evening. The following were elected for the year 1921-1922: President, Mrs. F. Seward; vice-president, Mrs. Paul Champagne; secretary, Mrs. J. E. Crandell; treasurer, Mrs. F. G. Wombold. Plans for the annual banquet in May and a whist party in April were discussed by the social committee and presented to the members present.

The Newton Girls' Club entertained the Waltham Girls' Club at the Stearns School Hall on Tuesday evening. The party was in the form of a "Character Party." Prizes were awarded for the prettiest, the most original and the funniest costumes. A short entertainment was followed by dancing and refreshments.

Members of the Boy Scouts are busily engaged in constructing two carts for transporting supplies and equipment on long hikes. The Flying Eagle Patrol is making one of these and the other is being constructed by various boys under Mr. Holman's supervision. Each cart will measure 32 by 72 inches, with sides 10 inches deep. On arrival in camp the body is removed from the wheels and is set upon the ground, where it forms a dining table for eight scouts. A cart of this kind cost before the war about $40. The cost today would be more, but Mr. Holman thinks that both carts may be made for the pre-war price of one by careful planning and conservative use of materials.

Said Commissioner reserves the right to reject either, any or all proposals or an ypart of any proposal, or to accept any proposal or any part of any proposal.

GEORGE E. STUART,
Street Commissioner.

TREMONT THEATRE—One of the best comedy productions presented this season in Boston is the universal appraisal of playgoers and critics concerning David Belasco's latest offering, "Call the Doctor," now at the Tremont Theatre. The comedy was written by Jean Archibald, who embraces in its story a really new idea in addition to a freshness of humor and remarkable brilliancy of wit. The story concerns the employment of a new kind of doctor, a physician of domestic difficulties. The doctor's prescriptions are ingenious to a startling degree, and for some the doses are of homeopathic minuteness, while with others the old fashioned, generous doses are required. It is in the administration as well as in the variety of the prescriptions that the real fun lies. And it should be added that the fun comes only in the largest of doses. In general all-round excellence in every member the company deserves the term all-star. Included among the players are Janet Beecher, Philip Merivale, Charlotte Walker, William Morris, Jane Houston, Mrs. Tom Wise, Fania Marinoff, John Amory, Rea Martin and Barbara Milton. There only remains the coming two weeks of the engagement of this remarkable comedy production. Mail orders will be carefully filled.

LODGES.

Newton Council, K. of C., has completed arrangements to hold a minstrel show on May 16 and 17. John J. Hickey is chairman of the committee. Louis Tabaldi, a member of the council, will be coach.

Newton Lodge, No. 92, held a very successful whist party at Mrs. Fellows' Hall on Monday. Prizes were won by Mr. William Skelton and Mrs. Esther Bacon. There were 28 tables.

A PRETTY ENTERTAINMENT

A very pretty and interesting entertainment of aesthetic interpretive dancing was given at the Newton Club by the pupils of Miss Ruth Pierce on the evening of March 18th.

The entertainment consisted of a grand march by the pupils in their regulation Grecian costume—followed by the technique exercises and solo and group dances. The dances were all arranged by Louis Chalf of the Chalf School of New York, with the exception of one, namely "The Heart of the Rose," which was arranged by the teacher.

The dances were: Bouncing Betty, Misses Virginia Brown, Molly Owens, Jeanne Volley; Daisies, Misses Virginia Brown, Molly Owens, Jeanne Volley; Marjorie Chapman, Chellise Cook, Eleanor Tupper, Virginia Vining; Violette, Misses Dorothy Allen, Thelma Coombs, Eleanor Harding, Ruth Holbrook; Fleur de Lis, Miss Irma Bartholomew; Wood Sprites, Misses Marjorie Bolster, Mary Coleman, Marjorie Trowbridge, Lydia Wear; Exhibition Fox Trot, Misses Anna Schipper, Irma Bartholomew, On to Victory, Miss Lucy Allen.

BOY SCOUT CAMPAIGN FOR $5,000

The response with which the Boy Scout movement's campaign for $5,000 for the work of 1921 is being received emphasized the importance of this work to the boys of the city. It shows with what interest the citizens of Newton consider the boy, and how much they believe in the Boy Scout program the ideal program for his development physically, mentally and socially.

During the coming week the Boy Scouts in uniform will distribute Scout circulars which gives the Norumbega Council organization, Troops and Scoutmasters some interesting facts worthy of note, and an individual subscription blank for making gifts to this work. Every citizen of Newton is invited to have a part in the Scout Movement by subscribing to the campaign. Every little will help to push it across and thus assure the boys of Newton, to find their place in God's plan and fill it.

THE COPLEY THEATRE

"The Rivals," which among all the famous old English comedies holds first place as a masterpiece of humor and dramatic construction, will be given at the Copley Theatre next week. Three years ago "The Rivals" was acted at the Copley Theatre, and there have been many requests for its revival. Its role of Bob Acres, the country squire who, although a coward at heart, is inveigled into a duel with the audacious Sir Lucius O'Trigger, is a character to command the skill of any comedian, and these roles will be acted at the Copley respectively by H. Conway Wingfield and E. E. Clive. But there is a fund of merriment in "The Rivals." From Mrs. Malaprop to Fag, it abounds in quaint and comic personages, and its dialogue is filled with curious sayings that disclose the verbal wit of the dramatist and his ingenuity in fitting them to the personality and temperament of those who utter them. It will be staged at the Copley under Mr. Jewett's personal direction, and the entire company will be in the cast.

ALICE IN WONDERLAND

There is coming to Newton Centre—not a circus—but a remarkable collection of animals, such as has never been seen on land or sea or in the waters under the sea. With them will come a real hot Duchess, a King and Queen, a Knave of Hearts, attendants—and Cook. All these will be centered in interest and action about "Alice in Wonderland"—in real life Narcissa Peace Varney.

The ever-wonderful story of "Alice in Wonderland" will be given on Saturday, March 26, at 2.30, in Bray Hall, Newton Centre, not in moving pictures, but in real drama for the benefit of the children in Europe. The two little French orphans supported two years ago by "The Little Princess" and last year by "The Poor Little Rich Girl," will be cared for and the rest of the money will be given through the Hoover Fund to the little children who, so hungry and cold, look to America for help.

There are twenty wide awake boys and girls in the caste, trained by Miss Dagmar Koch of South Africa and Mrs. Hodges of Newton Centre. It was Miss Koch who has been among the wild animals of African interior who devised and made the remarkable costumes to be worn in the play. There is no native American who could ever have conceived of the ferocity and magnificence of the high green and purple griffin—the mock turtle—if you have never seen one—is beyond your fondest imagination. The flamingoes are of course coral pink—have twisty necks and joined legs and make croquet mallets to knock the weird little hedgehogs through the human wickets.

Shall you ever forget the queer thrill you had when you first read of the strangely smiling Cheshire cat. Well, he will be there—with an uncanny, mysterious smile that comes and goes in a way you can't for the life of you explain. Words fail to convey an adequate idea of the March Hare—the Cook, the magnificent and irate Duchess and all the other important personages.

Enough to say it is not at all a play that should be seen by children only, but is a classic that is worthy an audience of philosophers and pedants. There's not a sensible moment in the whole performance—and the rollicking wit and laughable predicaments of Alice and her friends will make a merry afternoon.

STATE BOYS' DAY A GREAT SUCCESS

Fifty boys, under the leadership of the Boys' Secretary, Mr. F. E. Doubleday, secured $470 on State Boys' Day, March 19th. Half of the money will be used for the boys of Newton, 25% will go for boys' work in the State, 15% will go to the boys of North America, and 10% for the boys of China.

The boys' department team brought in the most money, the debating club was second, the physical department third, and the Hi-Y Club fourth.

Arthur Foster brought in the most money. Carter Flinn, Ray Woolston, and Gordon Kennison were close behind. All the boys did well.

Thanks are due to the friends of these boys, who received them so graciously and responded so generously in their endeavors to be of service to other boys.

New X-ray Apparatus Installed at Newton Hospital

Thanks to the energy of the Hospital Aid Association, of which Mrs. George H. Talbot is president, Newton Hospital is now equipped with an up-to-date X-ray apparatus entirely replacing that which had been in use for a number of years. This outfit consists of a modern transformer with a capacity not only sufficient for all X-ray requirements, but for the present methods of X-ray treatments. The transformer is located in the basement of the hospital, the current is conducted to the X-ray room and about it by a system of trolleys leading to the various pieces of apparatus. Control for these is from a compact switch-board containing various safety and automatic devices.

horizontal fluoroscope, a separate vertical fluoroscope, a stereoscopic illuminating box, a long illuminator for showing a series of plates and a Potter-Buckley diaphragm, a recent invention making possible the clear radiographic examination of deep parts in extremely heavy patients.

With its present equipment Newton Hospital is now well in advance of suburban hospitals and is equipped for as complete work as the larger urban hospitals.

Granting Edison Company one pole location on Baldwin street, Ward 7. Granting New England Telephone & Telegraph Company attachments to three poles on Watertown road, Ward 7.

The Council also arranged for one open meeting with Dr. Wm. R. P. Emerson, Nutrition Expert, as speaker.

In reviewing the work of the first year, we recognize the fact that it has been largely preparation. Today the Social Agencies here represented are better acquainted. We have a larger understanding of the work and problems of those organizations which have had the opportunity of speaking before this body. It will be another year before we can be properly introduced to all agencies represented.

The Central Council is distinctly an Advisory Board. Its vision is to intelligently recognize the needs of Newton—the religious, educational, social, recreational, civic and health needs of this City and to co-ordinate existing Agencies that their needs may be efficiently and economically met.

Grace E. Miller, Secretary. March 25th, 1921.

LOGGERS

Sumner P. Lawrence Rebekah Lodge will hold a Costume Party and Dance in Odd Fellows' Hall, Newtonville, Tuesday evening, March 28th. Good music will be furnished and an enjoyable time is anticipated. Many interesting and attractive costumes will be seen in the grand march.

RIVERSIDE CLUB VS. NEWTON Y. M. C. A. DUAL SWIM

Wednesday night, March 30, at 8, the fast swimming team representing the Riverside Club of Waltham will come to Newton for a dual swim with the Newton Y. M. C. A. team. This will be the first of a series of meets between these teams, and as both are composed of fast swimmers, a close meet is due to result.

Millard of Waltham is a New England 50-yard champion, and Brown, his team-mate, is also one of the fastest men around these parts. Newton's lineup of swimmers, plungers and divers are as follows:

Capt. Barnes all-round swimmer and fancy diver; Jaquith, another all-round man, excelling in the dashes, crawl, breast and back stroke; also Newton's best plunger; Noonan, a smooth crawl stroker and back stroker; Cunningham and Bang are both fast youngsters, specializing in the speed swims and swimming on the relay; Wallace, another good man in the dashes, and a close runner up to Jaquith in the plunges.

Vuilleumier and Shea are specializing in fancy diving, the former also a coming breast stroker.

The events for Wednesday night will be: 20-yard dash, 40-yard dash, 100-yard swim, 40-yard breast stroke, 40-yard back stroke, 160-yard relay, plunge for distance, fancy diving, four required dives and two optional dives per man.

The doors will open at 8.00. Ladies admitted.

ROBBINS—SALSICH

A very pretty home wedding took place on Monday at the winter residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton E. Salsich at St. Petersburg, Florida, when their daughter, Helen Mar, was married to Donald Goodrich Robbins of Waban.

The wedding took place at high noon, and was followed by a reception and breakfast at the yacht club. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. Frisbie of Detroit.

The bride's gown was of white embroidered crepe de chine, her veil being held in place by fragrant orange blossoms. She carried a sweet bouquet of pink and white snow peas. The matron of honor was Mrs. Earle E. Conway. She wore a gown of beaded orchid georgette with a hat to match, and carried Madame Cochel roses.

Mr. Robbins is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, class of 1907. Mr. and Mrs. Robbins are at present on a tour along the east coast of Florida and will be at home after June 1st at 19 Ridge Road, Waban.

The out-of-town guests included Mrs. Cyrus J. Ferris of Waban, a sister of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. George Hall, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Frisbie of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Manchester of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Borden, Mrs. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Eaton, Dr. and Mrs. O. M. Knox, Dr. and Mrs. Pell of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Woodruff of Tampa, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Mills of Hartland, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jungten of Jamestown, N. Y.

NEWTON CLUB

A Ladies' Afternoon Bridge was held at the Newton Club on Wednesday. There were twenty tables. These were in charge of Mrs. Roy Collins, Mrs. Benjamin Miller, and Mrs. Winthrop Scudder.

Souvenirs were won by Mrs. William Graham, Mrs. F. Spencer Arent, and Mrs. Raymond Hunting. Tea was served by Mrs. Fred Schipper and Mrs. Winthrop Scudder. A large number of guests from out-of-town were present.

On Wednesday, April 6, the ladies of the club will hold an Easter Luncheon and Bridge.

GARDEN CITY GRANGE

Raymond W. Sweatt Master of New Organization

Newton has been fortunate in having one of the oldest fraternal organizations added to the list of societies. Tuesday evening, March 22, a large number of Newton residents gathered in Odd Fellows' Hall, Newtonville, for the purpose of instituting a Grange.

S. T. Brightman of New Bedford, Assistant Steward of the State Grange, assisted by Waltham, Needham Granges, and Deputy Cahill of Waltham, instituted the Grange and installed its officers. The officers installed were: Master, Raymond W. Sweatt; overseer, Edw. R. Pitt; lecturer, Samuel Thurber; steward, Leonard Frost; asst. steward, Chas. H. Howard; chaplain, Frank W. Chase; treasurer, Alexander C. Baxter; secretary, Chas. F. Dow; gate keeper, Forrest Hafermehl; ceres, Mrs. Adelaide J. Sweatt; pomona, Mrs. Mary E. Pitt; flora, Mrs. Jessie A. McMullen; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Edna Howard; executive committee, (1 year) W. B. McMullen, (2 years) Chas. Benyon (3 years) Dr. Howard Moore.

There were delegations present from Waltham, Needham, Framingham, Wellesley and Natick.

The Grange is an organization interested in the development of agriculture. It is also a social and fraternal organization for developing the best in man.

Garden City Grange is fortunate in having the four leading officers, instructors, in our public schools: Mr. Sweatt, instructor of agriculture vocational school; Mr. Pitt, vocational; Mr. Thurber, Classical High; Mr. Chase, principal of Bigelow Grammar; Mr. Sweatt, Mr. McMullen, Mr. Howard, Mr. Baxter and Miss Mabel Baxter were the committee on organization.

The Grange has 900,000 members, 42,000 in Massachusetts.

The charter will be held open until its next meeting, Tuesday, April 12th. All the good people interested in the organization are cordially invited to send their names to any of the officers or to the secretary, Chas. F. Dow, 10 Church road, Newton, for information.

Y. W. C. A. CAMPAIGN

The Y. W. C. A. Campaign, which begins on Monday, March 28th, is for the purpose of raising $104,000 for the ensuing year. The work of the Y. W. C. A. needs no introduction to the public. The splendid war record achieved by the association is but the forerunner of its world-wide activities for girls. In Greater Boston alone the total attendance at the Blue Triangle Recreation Centre for the year 1920 was 28,643, while the average monthly attendance at the Blue Triangle was 1,860.

Miss Louise Walworth of Newton Centre is chairman for the city of Newton in this campaign. The committee in charge of the different Newtons are as follows:

Newton Highlands—Mrs. S. A. Thompson, chairman; Mrs. Donald McKay, Mrs. Asline Ward, Mrs. Fred

Rev. Frederick Palladino, pastor of the Methodist Church in Newton Upper Falls, gave a very inspiring address to members of the Fellowship Club on Monday evening, March 13th. The subject was, "The Building of a Soul."

A group of boys from the Methodist Church, Newton Upper Falls, enjoyed games in the gymnasium and a swim in the pool last Saturday afternoon and on Wednesday night, March 23rd, there was an athletic contest between groups of boys from Newtonville and Newton Centre churches.

Next week, Wednesday, March 30th, a team representing the Riverdale Club of Waltham, will meet the Y. M. C. A. Senior swimming team in a contest in the Y. M. C. A. swimming pool.

IT WILL HELP NEWTON AND NEWTON PEOPLE

Mortgage money is very scarce and hard to find. There is a strong, active demand for it by people who want to buy or build in Newton. This bank is helping to the full extent its resources permit. It could do more if more Newton people would deposit their savings here. There is a lot of savings account money, owned by Newton people, but deposited in out of town banks. Some of it is caught in closed banks. We urge you to keep your savings here where they will be safe, ready when wanted and helping Newton people.

DEATH OF MR. LORING

Stanton D. Loring, eldest son of the late Joshua Loring and Margaret Sprague Loring, of Newton Centre, died early Thursday morning at his home on Crescent avenue.

Mr. Loring was born in Chelsea, Sept. 14, 1845. He was educated at Chauncey Hall School and Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute of New York, which he left to enlist in the United States Navy in 1862.

After the war he entered the banking business, and later became cashier of the Blackstone National Bank. In 1875 he engaged in the investment business, in which he remained until he retired in 1907 from the firm of S. D. Loring & Son.

He is survived by his wife (Helen M. Bird) and a brother, Dr. Robert P. Loring of Newton Centre; also three sons, Rev. Robert S. Loring of Milwaukee, Wis.; Homer Loring and William C. Loring, and a daughter, Mrs. Thomas Weston, Jr.

Services will be on Saturday at his late residence, and the burial will be in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

ideals of truth, beauty and right living from books more than from anywhere else," said Mrs. George B. C.
Rugg, chairman of Literature of the State Federation, at the conference of that department on Wednesday morning of this week. On this account the department is devoting much thought and care upon lists of books, especially for young people, which they are recommending for general reading. A specially interesting feature of the conference was the talk by Mr. Clive of the Henry Jewett Players upon "The Literary Play" in which he stated that but one or two commercial producers have believed in the power of uplift in the stage or cared for the literary value of a play. He cited Henry Jewett as an exception, but in founding his repertory theatre he had sacrificed his career as an actor. Mr.
Clive gave some interesting figures showing how the public is gradually being educated to an appreciation of the literary play as witnessed by the attendance at the Copley Theatre.

Miss Marie Ware Laughton gave helpful suggestions as to the kind of plays which clubs should attempt to produce, and strongly urged the selection of those which have literary value, and warned her audience to think very carefully before trying a play that has had a tremendous success upon the professional stage. She particularly recommended having as much of the work of the production, including scenery and costumes, done by members of the club as possible that the community spirit may be fostered.

Mrs. Rugg urged that the clubs hold some sort of study class and explained the material which her department has to offer.

Mrs. Ralph Albertson in her discussion of Reading for Children touched a vital point when she recommended mothers to read with their children, saying it makes for community of interest in the family, and lessens the need of discipline. If the child begins by reading good things, it soon learns to discriminate between the good and the bad book, and will throw away that which is cheap. She advised against unreal books, the so-called goody, goody ones, because they do not teach the real problems of life. Rather give them what will feed their imagination and develop their power of understanding. In the times ahead the people as well as the leaders will need imagination.

Along the line of literary extension the suggestion was made for clubs studying some line of work to buy their own books and later present them to the public library when they have finished with them, rather than to ask the library to purchase those books for them.

Real interest in the conference was manifested by the evident desire to ask questions for information which would help in solving individual problems.

Local Announcements

The Monday Club of Newton Highlands will complete its visit to Norway at the meeting on March 28, at the home of Miss Webster. Mrs. S. L.
Eaton will describe Christiana and Mrs. Charles T. Bartlett will conduct the party Homeward Bound.

The Waban Woman's Club will observe Presidents' Day next Monday afternoon. Mrs. C. A. Sawyer has charge of the entertainment, which will be a Musical with tea following the program.

"Suppers" will be the subject for discussion at the Round Table of the Home Economics committee of the Newton Community Club next Monday morning, at the Hunnewell Club at 10.30.

For the next meeting of the An-bunrdale Woman's Club Mrs. Charles A. J. Smith, a club member and one of the program committee, presents Greek tableaux posed by club members. The cast includes Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Barris, Mrs. Foote, Mrs. Buckman,
Mrs. Floyd, Mrs. Bengier, Mrs. Robbins,
Mr. Johnson, Mrs. Ansley, Miss Bunker, and Mrs. Longfellow. There will be interpretive reading by Mrs. Shub as the pictures are shown, and piano accompaniment by Mrs. MacNutt will furnish a background of harmony.
Much thought is being put into the production of these tableaux, since "home talent" days are usually the most popular programs of the year. The entertainment will be followed by a social hour with refreshments. This meeting will be held on March 29 in the Methodist parish house.

Mrs. Frank R. Stubbs will present a paper before the Newton Social Science Club next Wednesday morning, her subject being "Racial and Economic Effects of Immigration."

The regular monthly meeting of the Newton Centre Woman's Club will be held on Thursday, March 31st, and is in charge of the Art and Literature committee. Miss Amy M. Sacker will speak of "The Japanese Art Treasures of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts."
It will be illustrated by lantern slides.
The business meeting is called at two o'clock to discuss the important question of plans for raising money for building the Club House.

Friday morning at ten o'clock the class in Conservation of the Community and Social Science Clubs meets at the Hunnewell Club.

Tickets for the annual luncheon of the Newtonville Woman's Club must be secured by April 5th from the chairman, Mrs. W. H. Allen.

Members of the Newton Ladies' Home Circle are asked to reserve
Thursday, April 7, as Mrs. Irving O.
Palmer will be the special guest that day and will talk upon "Thrift."

Local Happenings

Monday evening the members of the Woman's Club of Newton Upper Falls found the program offered by Anne Varner Baker highly entertaining.
Miss Baker has a very pleasing personality and gave a clever entertainment of crayon sketches, clay modelling, songs and impersonations. The club has decided to make the meeting of April 4th an open one and allow the general public to purchase tickets for the musical which will be given by symphony players.

Mrs. Grace M. Poole completed her course of current events talks before the Newtonville Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon, in which she gathered up, as she expressed it, the loose ends of the subjects, which had been considered during the winter. She considered that the coming summer has store many important and weighty matters to be determined for the nation and the world. Members of the class have been more than gratified with what Mrs. Poole has given them during the winter and she has already been engaged for the coming year.

Dr. William Byron Forbush spoke on Tuesday evening in the Congregational Church of Auburndale before a joint meeting of the Review Club and Stirling Castle, K. O. K. A. His subject was "The Manhood and Womanhood of Tomorrow," and his talk was a frank heart-to-heart one to parents on their attitude towards their children and in teaching them how to meet their own responsibilities of life. Dr. Forbush feels that there are three great errors in the rearing of young people today; that they have too much money, too much time and too much freedom. He advocates a budget system for children as a means of teaching them the wise use of money, of giving them a feeling of responsibility and also a feeling of independence. He would like to see the school authorities have supervision over the vacation and provide useful, intelligent and agreeable work for the free time.

Mrs. Franklin Leland gave a short organ recital before the lecture.

Wednesday morning Mrs. William C.
Crawford gave the closing of her talks upon current events before the Newton Social Science Club. After speaking of the inauguration she turned to the great questions of the world depending upon the United States. She discussed the qualifications of Secretary Hughes, present tariff measures and various of the new ideas relative to the tax laws.

She dwelt upon our commercial relations and then turned to a consideration of the League of Nations and some of its accomplishments, and of some of the great problems of Europe as they touch upon America.

Mrs. Crawford's talk was full of interest and gave a comprehensive view of present-day problems, which was most satisfactory to all who heard her.

Newton Federation

Mrs. Herbert S. Kimball, first vice-president, was in the chair at the regular meeting of the Executive Board of the Newton Federation on Monday morning. Mrs. F. H. Tucker, chairman of Conservation, reviewed the work of her committee during the year, chief of which has been the study class, that the members may become intelligent upon the needs of Conservation. Mrs.
Ralph C. Henry presented a resolution addressed to the board of aldermen asking for further appropriation to put the trees of Newton into proper condition. She stated that the trees are not in as good condition as usual, owing to the bad winter a year ago, which prevented the customary amount of work being done upon them, and the insufficient funds to guard against decay and insect pests. This was passed and was to be presented at the meeting of the board that evening.

Mrs. Abbott Rice, chairman of Legislation, told of attending many of the hearings upon the bills endorsed by the Federation and gave something of the discussion upon them.

The Civics and Social Service committee through its chairman, Mrs.
Henry V. Jones, repeated the request of the previous meeting for books for use in Americanization work, especially those of adventure, biography, historical stories, anything suitable for men who are learning the English language, but have not sufficient knowledge of it to be able to read books written primarily for adults. Such may be sent to Miss Roy at the office of the director of Americanization work at the Technical High School, or they will be called for, if Mrs. Jones or any member of her committee is notified.

Mrs. Jones reported that the Bureau of Household Occupations has been more than busy during the past two months. She read two leaflets which have been prepared by the director, Mrs. Joshua Seaver, one designed for employers and the other for employees, each giving helpful suggestions toward bringing about a better understanding between the contracting parties and destined to secure more satisfactory results in the way of work accomplished.

Mrs. Seaver herself outlined plans for workers' classes, which are to be held in the kitchen of Red Cross House and will train inexperienced workers in methods of laundry work, and the essentials of efficient cleaning about the house. There will be from eight to ten lessons in the course and will be given on two consecutive nights each week.She stated that contributions of soap, flat irons, coverings for ironing boards and other supplies would be very welcome.Mrs. Celia Wellman gave notice of a luncheon to be given at the Copley Plaza on April 5th in honor of Kate W. Barrett, president of the National Florence Crittenden League.Mrs. Warner Marshall, chairman of the Education committee, reported that her committee had decided to stand back in an advisory capacity of the trainings classes of the Bureau of Household Occupations and asked for an appropriation of $50 to finance the starting of them, which was granted.The special committee appointed to consider some method of raising money to replenish the Philanthropic fund recommended the holding two high-class moving picture shows, one on the South side and the other on the North side. The matter was left to the committee to work out the details.A plea for the West Newton Music School was presented. The school faces a deficit of about $100. The pro-motors are hoping to secure wider and more general support throughout the city and will appeal to the individual clubs through their respective music chairmen. The Federation voted its usual appropriation of $75.Mrs. Carrie A. Hull, of the Welfare Bureau, stated that there has been an unusual call for assistance during the winter owing to the large number of people without work. During the month of February $1,000 was given in relief. She made a plea for bedding of all sorts.The suggestion of holding the annual meeting on the South side of the city was discussed, but as there seemed to be some difference of opinion as to the feasibility of so doing, the matter was left in the hands of the officers and the Social committee to determine.
